

Smith Blasts Charter Challenge Committee

ROMULUS — An attack on various sections of the proposed City Charter for Romulus made by the "Romulus Charter Challenge Committee" headed by Terry L. Troutt, a member of the Romulus Charter Commission brought a sharp blast and strong reply from Roderick E. Smith, township supervisor and candidate for mayor in the May 7 City Incorporation Election.

Supervisor Smith, a strong supporter of cityhood for Romulus, is apparently getting more and more disgusted with Terry Troutt and his select few, the "Romulus Charter Challenge Committee."

Smith took quite a verbal swipe at the contentions of Troutt's group, saying that if the arguments against charter, contained in their latest brochure, are the best they can do, then they have nothing to hang their hats on. He added.

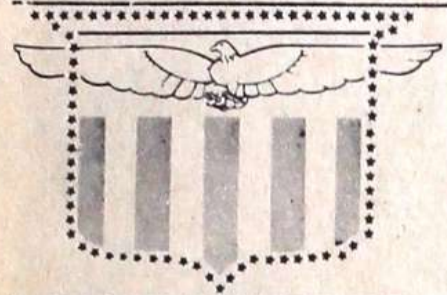

"Troutt, being a former supervisor, knows full well that the valuation of property in Romulus is set by the State of Michigan statute, and that the valuation figures are very favorable to the taxpayers; I wonder if he would sell his business and property for twice the equalized valuation as it appears on the local tax books. You can bet he wouldn't."

His reference of "raid upon the public till" relating to the salaries of the elected city officials, is one which comes from very narrow-minded thinking of one who wears two hats. You can be sure that when he was supervisor he was annually the ringleader in the move for higher salaries, and his was by far the highest. I cannot think of a single corporation, public or private, with the net worth of Romulus, where lower salaries are paid. The protection, built into the charter, as refers to salary increases, is, according to the Attorney General's office, one of the best means of proper control, in the entire state.

And where does he get his information that the new city officials will immediately find a place for 10 miles of city taxes? If he were the mayor, perhaps he would, but I am sure that not many, if any at all, of the candidates (or officials) would be so fool hardy. Of course, the little example Troutt used was based on the maximum. The actual need, and it may never be more, is closer to five mills. And throw out that $13. township tax he talks of as continuing. The city will get no former township tax."

"As far as an initial term of office of more than three years being too long, I initially felt and still feel that

Romulus Township Votes On Charter Tomorrow

42 Candidates Seeking Election

ROMULUS — Tomorrow (Thursday) figures to be an important date in Romulus history!

If voters follow predictions, they will turn out in near record numbers — over 4,300 are expected — and approve a proposed charter that will give the community its first City government in 133 years.

"There has been more to it than the campaign, although I think much should be said of the way the citizens of the community have responded to their first non-partisan municipal election," Rogalle said.

"There is also the question of whether neighboring cities are really waiting for the Charter to possibly fail at this time so they can step in with some efforts to annex industrial parcels. For what it's worth, there is no doubt in my mind that such is the case."

the few dissenters have presented arguments that the Charter has weaknesses.

"The Terry Troutt group, which is operating as the Romulus Charter Challenge Committee, brought its first published material into the subdivisions over the past weekend.

"With a couple of exceptions in which I know they did not present the whole story, their points are disagreements with provisions of the Charter — and we have debated those at both Charter Commission level and in public meetings since.

"They allege that the proposed Charter will raise Romulus taxes above neighboring communities (Taylor and Westland) and made some suggestive statements like 'You know how quickly the administration of the new City of Romulus will find reasons to utilize the full tax limit."

"This, of course, is typical and expected. There is, in truth, no reason to believe Romulus' taxes as a City will ever need be as high as any of our neighboring cities, either those with industry or those without.

"Nobody knows how long it would be, if ever, that Romulus' City administration would need to utilize the full tax limit. It's only 10 mills and, contrary to what Troutt's publication implied, is only a possible 6.8 mills beyond what is now being levied for municipal operation — not an extra $96 for what?"

Absentee Ballot Report

ROMULUS — Emergency absentee voter applications will be issued to any registered elector at any time prior to 4 p.m., on election day under certain conditions, Alfred J. Perry, township clerk, announced Monday.

The applications will be given out only in emergency cases such as the elector becoming physically disabled or shall be absent from the township because of sickness or death in the family which, has occurred at the time which has made it impossible to apply for absentee voter ballots by the statutory deadline, Perry stated.

The emergency absentee ballots will be accepted until 8 p.m. election day.

Romulus attorney Felix Rogalle, who was chairman of the nine member Charter Commission and is considered the community's leading authority on the document, says he feels the City question has evoked more interest and may stir a larger vote turnout than any previous item in Romulus' history.

The group has always worked in the best interests of the ENTIRE COMMUNITY" and will continue to do so.

Two years ago when the Township was in danger of annexation, the Romulus Homeowners Association, along with all of the service organizations in the township formed the "REACT — KEEP ROMULUS INTACT" Committee to protect our boundary lines.

A careful and close watch and study was made of the progress of the Charter Commission as they worked.

The Romulus Homeowners Association executive Board has found itself compelled to take a position on the ISSUE.

The Romulus Charter Challenge Committee has put out a "Fact Sheet" on the issue, urging a NO vote.

If HALF-TRUTHS, DELIBERATE MISINTERPRETATIONS OF SECTIONS OF THE CHARTER AS THE CHALLENGE GROUP PRESENTS ARE FACTS, AND YOU BELIEVE THEM, there is no hope for a better Romulus, Association's officials stated.

All of the surrounding communities have a higher tax limitation than the Romulus Charter provides for — most have a 15-Mill limitation.

The Charter Challenge Group is "pre-assuming" that Romulus will go to the full limitation. The other communities, with a lesser industrial, and development potential, have not gone to this full limitation, and Romulus will never have to either.

There are a few things to keep in mind, or check before you vote, and these are:

The Charter Challenge Group did not tell you that less than one percent of the registered voters would be eligible to vote on the Taylor Annexation Plans. What happens to the rest of us the more than 99 percent?

The Charter Challenge Group did not tell you how much your taxes would go up if the Airport and this Industrial tax land were removed from our income. Ask them what it would mean to those of us who will be unable to vote?

Ask this Charter Challenge Group who is paying for their publicity, and with whom have they been working?

Finally, if the Charter Challenge Group is working in your best interests, why haven't they published their headquarters or openly signed their material?

Why do they avoid giving a telephone number where they could be reached? Could it be that it is their "SELF-INTERESTS" and pre-committed deals, that could not stand up under close scrutiny.

The Romulus Homeowners Association Executive Board, pleads to vote for 100 percent of the people of Romulus, not the less than one percent WHO would stand to benefit by a NO Vote.

We Plead that your vote be YES, for City Charter!

Mayor's Post Sought By Three Candidates

ROMULUS — If City incorporation passes as expected here tomorrow (Thursday), this community will have not only a new form of government, but also its first Mayor.

One of the main provisions of the proposed City Charter is that it vests a bulk of administrative authority in one "strong mayor" — as compared to the present 133-year old township system which spreads such throughout seven board members without much definition of difference between administrative and legislative functions.

Three well known Romulus figures are seeking to become that first mayor, with inauguration into office scheduled May 25 for a nearly three year term.

They are: Roderick E. Smith, of 7300 Taft, Inkster, present supervisor of Romulus, and Veteran Public servant.

Hyle J. Carmichael, 54, of 37526 Walnut Drive, Romulus.

Albert J. Perry, 41, of 37600 Castle Drive, Romulus, current township clerk and former township Justice of the Peace.

Both Smith and Perry are running as independents and both have received the endorsements of various groups in their respective camps.

Hyle J. Carmichael, 54, a banking executive in Romulus for nearly 30 years.

Carmichael, although appointed by the present Township administration to a Trustee position last year which he had to decline, is making his first bid for public office.

endorsement of the "IQ" Group," (Citizens for Integrity & Quality in Romulus Government) which has emerged as perhaps most active of campaign organizations to spring up in the community's first non-partisan municipal election ever.

And he has pledged to retire from banking and devote full time to city administration if elected.

Carmichael and the IQ Group have built his campaign on the premise that Romulus government is "big business," and that a "professional...not partisan political" administrator of "integrity and quality" should run it.

They point out that Carmichael's three decades as executive of the local Romulus State Bank and Manufacturer's National Bank here (before moving into administration in the main downtown office two years ago) make him the most properly qualified for the "strong mayor" role the City Charter calls for.

Carmichael himself has strongly endorsed incorporation of Romulus as a city, stating that he considers it "absolutely essential for proper management," and pledged, if elected, to devote full time energies to building "...a competent, properly operated municipal business."

Carmichael has stated that he feels special attention to tax revision and utilization of all tax supported services (including schools, county and state) are the things which can do the most toward "getting full value of the tax dollar as we would want in a competitive business, which it should be."

ROMULUS — The administration and faculty at Romulus Senior High School has announced the school's top scholars of the class of 1970.

The leading scholar and Valedictorian for this year's graduating class is Miss Linda Marie Baston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mercado, 32142 Bruce, Wayne. She Huron Valley Miss contest will use her scholarship to Eastern Michigan University where she plans to major in mathematics. Lucy's plans are to become an Education

Romulus City Would Get $292,341 In Funds

ROMULUS — The City of Romulus (if proposed City Charter is approved) would receive $292,341 in Michigan Highway Funds Allocations, Charles W. Hazen, industrial coordinator for Romulus, reported Monday.

The following detailed explanation was submitted by Hazen:

Act 51, Public Acts of 1951, as amended provides the basic statutes governing the distribution and uses of motor vehicle highway funds. It establishes the broad objectives, policies and guidelines for the administration of these funds.

In addition to all other requirements provided by law, each highway agency is required to comply with certain terms, conditions, obligations, restrictions and duties concerning the administration and use of the funds allocated by the Act, or beneficiaries of the fund of this Act.

Act 51 provides that all state-collected motor fuel and license plates, along with certain miscellaneous fees, be placed in a common fund designated as the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund. The distribution of these funds is as follows:

Department of State Highways, 46 percent, County Road Commission, 34 percent and Cities and Villages 20 percent.

Each year the local agency is required to certify those roads and streets that are on their respective primary or major systems and those in the local road or street systems.

Wayne County has certified that Romulus Township has, as of July 1969, the following miles: County Primary Roads, 61.52 miles and County Local Roads, 83.59 miles.

Wayne County would retain about 43.5 miles of the primary roads. These would be roads such as Eureka, Middlebelt, Wayne and Huron River Drive. This 43.5 miles of roads would be maintained by Wayne County Road Commission.

CUB SCOUTS PLANTING TREES — Members of Cub Scout Pack 736 sponsored by St. Aloysius School, Romulus, decided to do something about pollution during their study of anti-pollution. Leaders of the Scout pack supervised a house-to-house fund drive to finance the purchase of trees to plant a green belt along I-94 Expressway at McBride. Above are Cub Scouts Dennis Helwig, 8, 9724 Lisa; and Tim Rash, 11, of 34550 California, carrying out their tree planting assignment.

The proposed Romulus City Charter came under fire from the Charter Challenge Committee.

It was termed a "bad document" by Terry L. Troutt, chairman for the Challenge group. He assailed it on five major points.

"For one thing," said Troutt, "as a member of the commission that drafted the charter, I objected to the provision for pay to City Commissioners." Section 4.9 (h) of the proposed charter provides that compensation for members of boards and commissions shall be up to $50 a monthly meeting, and Troutt pointed out, no limit set to the number of monthly meetings that may be held.

Troutt alleged that it is a political fact of life that commission appointments are, normally, payoffs to faithful supporters. "Political patronage is what it is," he said. "From experience as township supervisor, I believe there are enough people who will serve on various commissions from a sense of civic duty."

When working on the charter, Troutt proposed a maximum payment of $10 per meeting to commission members, another member proposed $35 and another member amended it to $50. With a possible 40 commission appointments, Troutt feels it a high priced way to pay political debts at the expense of the public.

"I also oppose the 10 mill maximum set on taxes," Troutt stated, "It's too high." Proponents have said they will not levy the full amount, but the public will have nothing to say about it if they do.

According to Troutt, they can assess the full amount if they want to, and most communities that have gone "City" are levying the maximum allowed. He cited two new cities; Westland and Taylor as examples.

"Remember, you will still have to pay the voted $1.50

Troutt Leads Attack

Challenge Group Hits City Charter

per thousand police millage and the $1.30 per thousand township tax, plus the County Drain tax as well as assessments for street lights, weed cutting, chloride road treatment, and sidewalk installation and repair," he added.

"Everyone can look forward to higher taxes anyway, due to the state equalization factor," he said, "and from all indications from Lansing, there will be a substantial increase in the state income tax. Most people just can't afford any more taxes!"

Salaries were also attacked by the Challenge group, "Just what are the people going to get for their money?" The Romulus City councilmen will be the highest paid in the state of Michigan, for population, Troutt alleged. "The Mayor will receive $17,500 a year, plus hospital insurance, life insurance, (sick benefits) plus expenses. The Clerk and treasurer will get $12,000 plus the same benefits."

In addition to thinking the proposed charter to be a "bad document", Troutt finds fault with the terms of office to be served by the first group of officials.

"None of those 43 candidates has told us what he is for or against. They give us a little personal history but they don't say what they want to do for the people of Romulus or how they are going to give us a better place to live." Most of them are inexperienced in government, but they are going to be in office almost twice the normal term allowed under the charter, he added.

"If the charter is approved, these men will have a term in office of 3 1/2 years," said Troutt, after that, the charter provides for a two year term.

Troutt says there should be a primary election to narrow the field from the 43 candidates now running. "No one can be elected by a clear majority in this election. A man could conceivably be elected to the council with as few as 257 votes, assuming that everyone voted and each councilman received equal votes."

Annexation fears are exaggerated, according to Troutt, who says it just isn't that easy to annex portions of another community. "It has to be done with the approval of the majority of the voters of the community doing the annexing and a majority of those in the area being annexed."

He stated further that the procedures involved in beginning annexation couldn't begin before Nov. 6, 1970. By then Romulus could have filed with the state for another charter commission term, thus guaranteeing the boundaries for another two years.

"It really boils down to this," said Troutt, "is the prestige of being called a 'City' worth going from the 3.2 mills now assessed for a township to the 12.8 mills allowed by the proposed charter?"

Candidates Listed For Clerk, Treasurer

ROMULUS — Tomorrow's special non-partisan election on a proposed city charter for Romulus Township will see voters casting ballots for 42 candidates, the largest number in the history of the community.

Among the candidates seeking legislative and administrative posts in the proposed strong mayor type government with clerk, treasurer and seven member city council, are three aspirants for city clerk and three for treasurer.

(Editor's note: Elsewhere in this issue of the Romulus Roman are reports on other candidates.)

The three seeking the city clerk's position are Leonard

J. Folmar, of 35870 Cypress, Wayne; Mrs. Vivian Hess, of 7170 Kempa, Inkster; and Mrs. Mickie Lopota, of 6711 Merriman Rd.

The three running for the treasurer's post are Charles R. Kline, of 3082 Cherry, Romulus; Albert L. Glinski, of 36915 Ferndale, Romulus; and Daniel I. Lambert, of 38475 Westvale, Romulus.

ROMULUS — The "IQ Group," (Citizens for Integrity & Quality in Romulus Government) is closing out its first election campaign this week with a final appeal to voters to support city incorporation and its endorsed candidates for the 10 elective offices.

"We've heard alarming claims—that costs will go up and taxes will sky rocket—but can find no credence for such pronouncements," Ron Hopson, chairman, said, adding:

"In fact, we asked in other cities. They report the same alarms when City vote was proposed there. But they did vote City and no such thing happened. Charter millage limitations and election of conscientious officials prohibit it."

Hopson said that IQ Group's studies indicate that there is no significant difference at all in costs of services between townships and cities—except that cities are capable of offering more when asked to do so... and get more revenues directly which otherwise go to other agencies, allegedly to be spent in the townships.

"We've been investigating claims of higher costs and out of line expenses being included in the Romulus Charter, but, again, find no credence behind the charges except for whatever use they may be as scare tactics," Hopson said.

"Our studies show that City salaries are firmly set at exactly what it is now costing in the township...no more and no less where elected officials are concerned...and the Charter has a provision for public referendum on any proposed changes.

"We also find what should be rather obvious: Firemen, policemen—and softballs—all cost the same in either city or township government."

"The only difference we can really point at is street and road maintenance where a City gets the State Gas & Weight Tax to do the job rather than having it go into a general fund at the County Road Commission as it does with townships," he added.

On the same subject, Hopson said surveys in surrounding cities indicate that "electing office holders

"On the other hand," Rogalle noted, "even Troutt's group makes a provisional promotion for cityhood with the slogan 'A Good Charter, YES—A Poor Charter, No!'"

"So I guess it boils down to a case of whether this Charter is the proper one for Romulus to become city with. No one has argued that it is perfect. But majority of the Charter Commissioners, majority of the elected public officials (both parties) and majority of the civic organizations feel that it is a good one for incorporation... and any possible changes elected city officials should have a four-year term. A two year term is too short a period of time, especially for an inexperienced official, to show their true worth."

Mr. Troutt also knows full well that, quote, "MONTHLY MEETING" unquote, means just that. I was present at the Charter Commission when this matter was discussed and finalized; he is now only trying to confuse the voters on this matter.

"In relation to chapter IV, Sect. 45, I feel sure that if enough people vote for a candidate to get him elected, they must have confidence in him to use good judgment, even to the appointment of a person to fill the vacancy of a normally elective position. Why waste $3500 to $4000 in a special election?"

"Troutt's lack of concern about the threat of annexation (and it is real) would lead one to believe he has allegiance to someone else at the expense of our community. I'm not saying 'sour grapes', but it certainly seems strange for Troutt to be opposing so many things that would be good for Romulus if he were back in office."

If January attendance at Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum can be used as an indicator, this should be a good travel year at the Midwest's top travel attraction. Attendance for January showed a 21.2 percent increase over the previous year.

Mahalak Back Proposed City Charter For Romulus

NEW BOSTON — Huron Township Health Committee's Poster Contest kicks off Immunization Clinic to be held tomorrow, at all schools in Huron Township.

parents about the importance of immunization for the well being of their children and themselves.

Judging of the posters was held on three levels, Elementary, Junior High and Senior High, with three prizes being offered for the best posters from each grade level.

Winners from the elementary schools are: First prize to Sharon Kay Weiss of St. John's School, Second prize to Kevin Otter of St. John's School, and third prize to Clara Rhodes at Hannan Elementary School. Honorable mention went to Georganne Grevstad of New Boston Elementary School.

Huron High School winners were: First prize to Lucille Germain, Second prize to Cindy Corkiewicz, and third prize to Linda LeValley.

All winning posters will be posted in each school represented in the contest.

A total of fifty-five posters were submitted for judging and many were of outstanding work. The people of Huron Township may see the posters placed in all business establishments. Arrangements for presenting of the prize money is now being made.

Poster Contest chairman was Mrs. Joseph Balog and her co-chairman were Mrs. Suzy Rhodes and Mrs. Dora Donowski. Judges were: Mrs. Wilma Wilson and Mrs. Donald Everingham.

Immunization Clinic Chairman this year is Mrs. Clarence Otter of New Boston and anyone having a question on the immunization program may call Mrs. Otter at 654-5405. This year the Health Committee is unable to offer polio shots. And once again our local doctors have offered their support on this very important clinic.

Local Registered Nurses will once again staff the immunization clinics, with members from the Huron High School Medical Careers Club assisting.

Each clinic will have two regular Health Committee members working and will assist parents in filling out any forms necessary.

Our Readers Express Their Views

TO THE EDITOR:

I note on the front page of the Belleville Enterprise dated April 15, an interesting little item which states, that all members of the School District Board of Education except one were in attendance at the National School Board Association's Convention in San Francisco, Cal., April 11-14.

VERY INTERESTING

Now why in "tunket" did they all have to go? How many traveled at their own expense and how many went at the School Boards expense? I wonder.

Few people attend distant conventions at their own expense. One person to attend such a meeting representing the local board, yes, -- but the whole group, NO!

The Board is quick to say, and continually tells us how hard up they are, asking for renewal of millage and additional new millage or they will have to discontinue some parts of the school program.

Well, attendance at conventions in San Francisco, en masse, is one activity they may well discontinue. If they want to practice frugality, they should show it once in a while. What could the whole Board bring back from that convention that one person could not have done?

Many of the lectures are pre-printed so that each person may have copies and the whole proceedings are later reported in the annual report to the membership. Why send several persons to bring back what one person could have obtained.

How did they determine who would stay at home to mind the stores?

I think Mr. Kaulitz would have done well not to have mentioned this junket, but then -- it would have gotten out anyway.

As for myself, this nice mid-April vacation for the Board has earned a No vote on any future renewal or new millage elections, for all of which, we taxpayers are supposed to smile, approve and then ante-up.

G.M. Arnold

To the Editor:

After watching the performances of certain politicians in Romulus, I have decided to write this letter.

I am a 19 year-old-boy, and I do not like what I see and hear in my hometown! Our country was founded by great men, men who had ideas of making a homeland to be proud of, a land where they could be free. Free to print what they believe, free to say what they believe, and free to worship as they pleased.

They fought a war to gain these ideals, gave their lives for what they believed. Today, we live in a country, torn with unrest and its people troubled by war, hate, and injustice.

America has made progress, America has always found a way to cure her ills, and return to a normal way of life. And, I hope Romulus citizens will open up their God given eyes and see what exactly is going on in their hometown! I hope on May 7 all will vote and say "NO" to some certain office seekers.

We have seen recently, a group formed in Romulus called "IQ". This group is "supposed" to be non-partisan, but yet they have backed a republican slate. I like their honesty there.

One candidate has already spoken out on this group, he is Mr. Smith, present supervisor. And, I back him up on his statements made on this group. Someone must inform the people.

There are a few other candidates who have weasled in to flub things up. I won't mention any, just look around. Recall what has happened in the past, and look now. That is all you need.

There is a great man in America today, and I would like to quote him on how he feels about matters as I have discussed previously. This man is Edmund Muskie, and says, "...there is no room in America for those who would traffic in human rights for political advantage." Look at your candidates, see who can fit this shoe, they won't be hard to find.

There is one man, however, who has done a lot for Romulus. He has worked hard for Romulus, and has done more for Romulus than anybody in recent years.

He has been fair to the people, honest with them, and in my eyes, has lived up to the ideals set forth in a leader. This man is Mr. Roderick Smith. Not to return him to office on May 7, I believe would be a grave mistake.

If I may again quote Senator Muskie from a speech given last November in Detroit, he says, "I think that the responsibilities of a public servant and yours as religious leaders are the same. We both have to question our decisions; we both have to provide leadership through example, the high standards in our public and private lives that young people so earnestly seek."

I am a youth of the United States and I do not like what I see in Romulus, and letting the people know. I am concerned for I live in Romulus, and I want leaders who will do a job for the people, with the people, and not for themselves.

BARRY T. BAUMANN

TO THE EDITOR:

In the week ahead, climaxing with the long awaited incorporation election on Thursday, May 7, the campaign of Citizens for Integrity & Quality in Romulus Government (IQ Group) will have played its course.

Looking back on the job facing us when our citizens' group was formed, I think we can say that together--the committee and the citizenry--we have given to the community of Romulus a clean, hard, sincere campaign of integrity and quality.

I think that is what we set out to do. I think that is as it should be. And I think that is what our Charter Commissioners had in mind when they proposed non-partisan elections as best for Romulus.

As you know, we now expect--and are expected--to win cityhood.

We also have every confidence that the IQ State of candidates--headed by Mayor nominee Hyle Carmichael, Clerk nominee Leonard Folmar and Treasurer nominee Al Glinski--and including our seven Council endorsees, has put forth a quality effort to bring information and issues to the citizenry and can expect strong voter support.

All this, of course, is our most fervent desire--not for ourselves or our endorsed candidates, but for Romulus and its citizens who have long worked, and richly deserve, to begin realization of the fruits of this community's many potentials.

To each and every group and individual who has--and will be--joining in this important effort, I want to take this opportunity to express my personal and the organization's personal thanks.

We look forward to putting this project over on election day Thursday--and perhaps for many elections to come. It has been a real pleasure to have been associated with such fine, deserving people.

Again, our most sincere thanks!

RONALD HOPSON
IQ Group Chairman

TO THE EDITOR:

In these days of "rebellious youth", it was a real joy for several parents of the Belleville High School Symphony Band members to attend part of the State Band and Orchestra Festival in Flint recently.

Even though our Band did not receive top honors, we believe they played exceptionally well under the able direction of Greg Heuer, band director.

How we wish you could know the pride we felt as we watched our young people accept a very disappointing rating without any bitterness, and then quietly and proudly (even though broken-hearted) walk out to their waiting buses for that sad ride home!

We believe they showed real maturity, and were a credit to their school and community!

God Bless you kids! We rate you ONE all the way!!

LIFE HEALTH

Neuritis

Neuritis is one of a number of diseases of the nerves or the nervous system.

There are many causes; and there are a number of symptoms, some of which could be misleading. Among these symptoms are tingling or numbness in the hands or feet or the areas supplied by the nerves, muscular weakness, absent or reduced muscle reflexes, loss of sensation in the affected areas, pain and sweating in the area supplied by the diseased nerve or nerves.

Whatever the cause, among the many, it is certain that a nerve, a group of nerves, or a master nerve trunk is affected. The chiropractor is an authority of the spinal column and of the body's entire nervous system. He is the expert mechanic whose gentle, competent hands can make the adjustments necessary to restore the nervous system to its proper order, thus allowing the body to function normally and bring immeasurable, lasting relief. Happy 90TH, Mrs. V.

LOOKING BACK over the past 90 years while enjoying a lovely party was the order of the day April 12 as Mrs. Violet Vincent was honored on her 90th birthday.

Held at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, William and Margaret Vincent in Birmingham, the open house was attended by some 30 close friends and relatives. Among those attending were Bellevillites, Jim and Betty Vincent and children and Dr. James Vincent and family with whom the honoree lives.

Despite her number of years, Mrs. Vincent remains very active and took great delight in opening her many pretty gifts -- all centered around a 'violet' theme in keeping with her name.

The corsage she wore was comprised of fresh violets, the huge birthday cake was accented with icing violets and there was even a pin and earring set fashioned of violets.

First Communion Day

SOME 90 youngsters from St. Anthony's parish filed into the church Saturday morning to receive their first holy communion. Father Raymond Skoney, pastor, administered the rite and delivered a special sermon directed to the children and their parents.

Following 9:00 mass, many of the group were honored guests at family parties. Among the handsome young men was Chester Kosin whose mother and dad, Chet and Mary Kosin, entertained at their home on Elwell Road.

Driving in from Bridgeport for the happy occasion were Chester's grandparents, the Frank Maziarz and their daughter, Angie. Also attending were Grandma Kosin (Mrs. Chester) from Inkster and Chester's God-parents, Bob and Fran Sewejkis, and their children from Dearborn Heights.

THE MEMERINGS

Bob and Mary Lou -- played host to some 86 guests Saturday afternoon.

Arriving at their Renton Road home and congratulating their son, Bobbie, were friends from Plymouth, Livonia, Southgate, Wayne, and Belleville.

Special guests, who enjoyed a full-course dinner, were Father Skoney and Bobbie's God-parents, Ray Memering and Marcy Ivan, all of Belleville.

PRETTY JILL NEUPERT

was the guest of honor when her parents, Phil and Brenda Neupert, entertained Saturday afternoon at their home on Louisa Drive. Guests for dinner were the Tony Marios and Doris Neupert from Otsego, Tom Mario of Detroit, and the Bill Palletts of Kalamazoo.

ANOTHER SATURDAY

honoree was Tommie Hudge and his party from three o'clock on was attended by over 50 friends and relatives. In honor of their first communicant, Tom and Grace served a buffet supper complete with a specially-decorated cake.

Family Gathering Marks Mrs. Pitcher's 80th Year

By MRS. JOSEPH SPRING
OX 9-4021

On Sunday afternoon, April 26, Mayor and Mrs. Royce Smith entertained at a family gathering at their home on West Columbia Ave. in honor of Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Kirk (Ethel) Pitcher's 80th birthday which fell on April 27, and Mrs. Pitcher's oldest daughter, Mrs. Esther Lindemann's birthday, which was the 26th.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pitcher and Joan, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Klock and family all of Allen Park, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Pitcher and Janet, of Main St., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pitcher of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith and baby, of W. Columbia Ave., and Miss Mary Louise Williams of Birmingham. Among the family members present were Mrs. Pitcher's 12 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. All enjoyed cake and ice cream served by the hostess.

Miss Ruth Vorce of Ann Arbor was an evening caller.

Thursday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Verne Sayre of Ecorse Rd. were her brother and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Woods, of Deerfield, another brother, Mr. John Woods of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. James Sayre of Morton-Taylor Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sutherland of Palmetto, Florida, arrived one day last week and will spend the summer months with their family in Michigan.

After having spent the winter months in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Feight returned home last week. In December Mrs. Feight underwent major surgery in a Lakeland Hospital being released two days before Christmas.

Dale Maki of Quirk Rd. and friend, Ronald McMaine, were last weekend guests of the Floyd Richardson family of Lexington, Kentucky.

The following day, Tommie's cousin, Danny Magnus, who lives just across the way on Sumpter Road, had his party. Members of both Dick's and Pat's families were invited to enjoy dinner in honor of the event.

AND AT THE Belleville Road home of Fred and Betty Gott Saturday, there were about 35 guests who came to honor their son, Ronnie. Family members and friends came from Detroit, Livonia, Garden City, Allen Park, Dearborn Heights, and New Boston for the evening party.

JOAN VAN BUHLER,

the youngest of Ray and Lee's four children, was among those in Saturday's first communion class. That evening a buffet dinner was served to some 23 relatives from St. Clair Shores, Warren and Belleville.

Also congratulated at the party was Joan's cousin, Joey Polzin, another of the group, who attended with his mother, Gloria Polzin.

And still another cousin, Martha McNally, had been feted earlier in the day when her mother and dad, Charlene and Norm, had relatives in from Ida and Warren for a family get-together at their Edgemont Street home.

NANCY ANN Hudge,

pretty in the white dress her mother had made for her first communion day, had guests in for a special breakfast following mass Saturday. Sharing the occasion were her Grandmother Kane from Wyandotte, her god-mother and family, Lee and Bert Smith with Sue and Carol, and her aunt, Flo Hudge with daughter Cindy.

Sunday afternoon at the Hudge's Haggerty Road home, the 58 guests who came to honor Nancy included relatives and friends from Trenton, Wyandotte and Belleville. A buffet supper highlighted the afternoon and on-into - evening party.

THE FIRST of Ron and Jan Sierota's three daughters,

Valerie, was another young lady to receive the sacrament Saturday. Her party at two o'clock centered on a buffet dinner and included family members from Dearborn and Detroit.

At Methodist Church

Double Ring Vows Unite Bette Oelke, Jack Burgett

Candlelight set the mood April 25 for the seven o'clock nuptial service which united Bette Gene Oelke and Sp/4 Jack Alan Burgett in Holy Matrimony. The altar of the First United Methodist Church was appointed with two vases of white carnations and chrysanthemums as the bride approached with her father.

Parents of the young couple are Mr. and Mrs. Grant B. Oelke of 1020 E. Huron River Drive, Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Burgett of 14369 Northville Road, Plymouth.

The Rev. Charles Dibley presided at the double ring rite and Mrs. Maxine Miller at the organ accompanied Paul Brown who was soloist. His two numbers were "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

Laurie Lynn Is The Name

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bruck of 17350 Bak Road, Belleville, welcomed their first child, a daughter, April 21 at Garden City osteopathic Hospital. The 7 lb., 10 oz. baby was titled Laurie Lynn.

Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald G. Syer of Waltz Road, New Boston, and her great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Syer of Hannan Road, New Boston.

MISS HERIDIA

MISS COPP

Engagement Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. George N. Copp of 46065 Judd Road, Belleville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Violet R., to Gary W. Grams. The bride-elect, a student at Belleville High School, is planning a July 11 wedding at St. Irene's Church, Dundee.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Grams of 11280 Day Road, Dundee, graduated from Dundee High School in 1966 and is self-employed.

Farmer Feeds 43

Before the Civil War, the American farmer produced food and fiber to feed and clothe himself and three other persons; by the beginning of World War II that figure had jumped to the farmer and 11 persons; today it's the farmer and 42 other persons. This substantial decrease in rural labor releases the majority of our population to work in other jobs in this country's current urban-centered technological economy.

Wedding Set For May 16

The engagement of Cheryl Marie Heridia to Edward Lee Dishart is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Welsh of Kenwood Drive, Inkster.

Miss Heridia is in her senior year at Romulus High School and is employed at Burger King, Wayne.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Dishart of Second Street, Inkster, is serving with the U.S. Navy aboard the U.S.S. Enterprise at Norfolk, Virginia. He graduated from Romulus High in 1968.

The wedding is being planned for May 16.

Birthdays Observed By Clubsters

The latest meeting of the Huron Township Senior Citizens was held at the Waltz Fire Hall May 5 with a sack lunch at 12:30 p.m. Birthday cakes were furnished to observe the April and May birthdays in the group.

Forty-six members attended the anniversary dinner at the Sweden House on April 21. Plans were made for a bus trip to Lansing May 12.

More than ten million people saw the original musical OKLAHOMA.

Charlotte Greenwood played Aunt Eller in the film version of OKLAHOMA.

FOR HER wedding day, Bette Gene selected a formal Victorian creation of peau de soie frosted with Alencon lace. The high-rise bodice was styled with a high lace neckline and full sleeves accented with lace. Her toe-touching gown swept into a chapel train and her bridal veil cascaded to mid-back length. Held by a lace petal headpiece studded with sequins and pearls, her silk illusion veil was in the bouffant mode.

Completing her bridal finery was a cascade bouquet of white carnations and white satin streamers.

As her sister's honor attendant, Brenda Marie Oelke donned a formal gown in mint green. The empire bodice was styled with puffy sleeves and a back panel of lace. Her brief veil was secured by a flat bow and her bouquet was comprised of mint green and white carnations.

Wearing identical orchid ensembles were Mrs. Bonnie Pinter of Belleville, sister of the bride; Judy Burgett, of Chicago, sister of the bridegroom; Susan Buck of Belleville; and Kaye Wallace of Ann Arbor.

Lisa Jo Pinter, five, daughter of the Harry Pinters of Belleville, carried out the role of flowergirl at her aunt's wedding. Wearing a miniature version of the honor maid's gown, she carried a basket filled with orchid and white carnations.

BEST MAN was the bridegroom's cousin from Plymouth, Mike Beyer.

Others on the esquire side were Bob Oelke, brother of the bride and Harry Pinter, brother-in-law of the bride both of Belleville, and Gary Burgett, cousin of the bridegroom, and George Florkin, both from Plymouth.

The P.N.A. Lodge was the setting for the reception which followed. Some 300 guests were greeted by Mrs. Oelke in a baby blue coat-dress ensemble trimmed in white. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Burgett donned a turquoise dress with companion coat and matching accessories. Both mothers were presented with white orchids.

Enroute to their new home in Fairfax, Virginia, the newlyweds honeymooned in Washington, D. C. Jack currently stationed with the U.S. Army at Fort Belvoir, Virginia, will receive his discharge in August. He is a graduate of Plymouth High School.

The new Mrs. Burgett graduated from Belleville High School and attended Central Michigan University. Prior to her marriage she was employed in the office of the registrar at the University of Michigan.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents at Howard Johnson's in Belleville.

April Arrival Christened

THERE'S A new baby being lullabyed these spring days at the Kenneth Scodeller home on Roland Street. And that little object of attention received even more Sunday, April 26, her christening day.

Angela Richelle, who made her debut April 10 at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor, received the sacrament at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with Father Raymond Skoney officiating. God-father by proxy was Harry Carmigi of St. Clair Shores whose wife, Margaret, was Godmother. The infant's real sponsor, Frank Quilici, who plays second base for the Minnesota Twins, was tied up in a contest with the Detroit Tigers at the time.

The baby's father, who coaches baseball and football at Belleville High, is a close friend of Quilici's having served as God-father for HIS daughter, having been college mates, and having played pro baseball together.

And, of course, there was a party following the ceremony with friends and relatives arriving at the Scodeller's from Utica, St. Clair Shores, Dearborn, and Belleville.

Mom-Daughter Banquet Set

ROMULUS: The annual mother and daughter banquet will be held Thursday, May 7, at St. Aloysius School Hall on St. Aloysius Street, Romulus. Serving will be at 6:30 p.m. and a complete menu of chicken and meat balls is being planned.

The event is sponsored by the Altar Society. Mrs. Josephine Molenda is general chairman and Mrs. Violet Pawlowski, program chairman. Admission is $1.75 for adults; 75 cents for children 12 years and under; and children five and under will be admitted free.

A short program appropriate to the occasion will follow dinner.

Introducing--The Cast Of Oklahoma!

OKLAHOMA! — One of the most ambitious undertakings of students and faculty at Belleville High School is in its final days of rehearsal. In fact, the musical production will open Friday night, May 15, in the new school auditorium.

Principal roles are filled by 13 Belleville High students whom we'd like to introduce to you at this time. You'll be seeing more of them May 15, 16, 21, and 22.

'LAUREY' is being played by a senior, Ann O'Beay, on May 15, opening night, and May 21.

Ann is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth O'Beay of Beckley Rd. When not busy with extra-curricular activities at B.H.S., Ann is showing horses competitively for Orlo Roberts. She is a member of the National Honor Society and is president of the United Nations Club, secretary of the Concert Choir, and belongs to the B.H.S. Chorale.

As a freshman she was a member of the Future Teacher's Club and the Spanish Club. No stranger to dramatic arts, she was Bea Schacter in the senior class play, 'Up the Down Staircase."

Hoping to further her career in music, Ann has accepted an offer from the E.M.U. Board of Regents Departmental Scholarship in Music. She has also received a Michigan Competitive Scholarship and a Belleville Rotary Club Scholarship.

JACKY WEBB is one of three talented girls who auditioned for the role of 'Laurey.' The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Webb of Harris Rd., she will perform May 16.

Jacky could sing before she could talk and began vocalizing in her church choir at the age of six. Currently a junior she has been in choir all through high school and last year received a scholarship to Michigan State's music camp.

Jacky recently received a I rating at the State Vocal Solo-Ensemble Festival at Oakland University. She plans to continue her musical training at E.M.U. after graduation.

SUSAN WATSON, daughter of the John A. Watsons of Catherine St., Ypsilanti, has always been interested in dramatics and has acted in school plays as well as having a part in the "Miracle Worker" when it played at the Ann Arbor Civic Theatre.

Sue, who will play 'Laurey' on May 22, was president of her sophomore class and has been affiliated with the Latin Club, Literature Club and Choir. A junior, she placed first this year in the Belleville Forensic Contest in serious interpretation.

DONNA GRZESIK
(Ado Annie)

DAVID SALISBURY
(Will Parker)

THE ROLE of 'Curly,' male lead in OKLAHOMA!, will be played by Dale Burger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Burger of Sheldon Rd. on May 15 and 21.

Dale is a 16-year old junior who has played basketball and football and taken part in track activities. He was a member of the Boys Glee Club last year and is currently in Concert Choir.

ROGER GILLESPIE shares the role of 'Curly' and will be on stage May 16 and 22. An all-round student, he is the son of the A. Gillespies of Elwell Rd.

Roger has been in concert choir for three years, chorale for two, and in the summer of 1969, attended a choral and piano-workshop at E.M.U. This summer he will tour Europe with MYI. A junior, he also played football and went out for track.

'AUNT ELLER' will be played by Evonne Gustin, a junior, on May 16 and 22. Evonne has three years of Concert Choir to her credit and is a member of Chorale. Last summer she attended a choral workshop at E.M.U.

She is a member of the Literature Club and has been active in forensics. Her parents are the Clarence Gustins of Denton Rd.

ALSO TAKING the part of 'Aunt Eller' is Luanne Smith, another junior, who will be cast on opening night, May 15 and also on May 21.

Luanne, daughter of the Bert Smiths of Edison Lake Rd., is a member of the National Honor Society. This year she is news editor of the school paper, TNT; and is president of the Pep Club. She was in Concert Choir for two years and was piano accompanist for the choir in the ninth grade. She is also a member of the Ski Club.

WAYNE SMOLEN is a newcomer to B.H.S. having moved to Belleville during his sophomore year to live with his uncle and aunt, the Ray Sinkiewicz of Liberty St.

WAYNE SMOLEN
(Andrew Carnes)

Wayne enacts the part of rugged, tough 'Andrew Carnes' for all four performances of OKLAHOMA! A junior, he is a member of Concert Choir.

'JUD,' THE 'bad guy' determined to win Laurey's hand by hook or crook, will be played by Ron Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Parsons of Rawsonville Rd.

Ron's many activities keep him busy, but that's the way he likes it. He is a member of the orchestra, jazz band, and the symphony and marching bands. He also belongs to JETS, the National Honor Society, Biology Club, and

LUANNE SMITH
(Aunt Eller)

EVONNE GUSTIN
(Aunt Eller)

RONALD PARSONS
(Jud)

KAYE IVAN
(Ado Annie)

the Literature Club of which he is vice-president.

Ron will play 'Jud' all four nights.

NAUGHTY 'ADO Annie Carnes' will be played by Donna Grzesik on May 16 and 21.

A member of the National Honor Society, Donna has been in Concert Choir two years. She is a member of the Literature Club, took part in forensics as a freshman, and was in the Biology Club last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grzesik of Ecorse Rd. are Donna's parents.

ANOTHER 'ADO Annie' is Kaye Ivan, a junior, who will belt out her songs May 15 and 22.

Kaye is in the National Honor Society, Ski Club, Pep Club, and was in Glee Club during her freshman year. She has had some acting experience, having played Queen Gloriana in "The Mouse That Roared."

Kaye is the daughter of the Frank Ivans of E. Huron River Dr.

SOPHOMORE DAVE Salisbury, playing the part of 'Will Parker' on May 15 and 21, is the son of the James D. Salisbury of Elwell Rd.

Dave has been in the Belleville High School Band

Ave., Ypsilanti, are the parents of this talented senior who will play the part of 'Ali Hakim,' a traveling salesman, during the entire run of OKLAHOMA!

Jim has had four years of forensics and three of debate, receiving first in district declamation as a freshman. When a sophomore, he placed third in the district and as a senior placed second in extemporaneous.

He played football in ninth grade; ran cross country the next three years, and went out for track as a sophomore.

JIM SMALLISH

for two years playing oboe, clarinet, and saxophone. This summer he will be studying music with the World Academy in Europe.

RAY JOSLYN is a sophomore whose main interest is vocal music. He has been in Concert Choir for two years and took part in the solo and ensemble concert in Detroit, receiving a I for his efforts. At the State Festival at Oakland University, he received a II rating.

The senior Ray Joslyns of Edwards Rd. are the parents of Ray who will play 'Will Parker' on May 16 and 22.

JIM SMALLISH'S current goal is to study dramatic arts at E.M.U. next year. The Donald Smallishs of Buick

ANNEXATION:

THE #1 REASON FOR A YES VOTE ON CITYHOOD!

It's no secret that the City of Taylor plans to annex Metro Airport and the City of Wayne is planning to incorporate the General Motors Diesel Engine Plant.

The General Motors Diesel Plant has a State Equalized Valuation of $8,787,000.00.

Romulus receives $536,473.00 in tax dollars under Act 189 from Airport properties. The State Equalized Valuation of Metro Airport is $10,875,200.00, which represents 8.8 per cent of total valuation of the Township.

"Act 189 provides that when tax exempt real property is used by a private party in a business conducted for profit, the private party is subject to taxation to the same extent as though he owned property".

Annexation by the City of Taylor could occur - both north and south of Wick Road; west to include all of Wayne County Metro Airport. There are only twenty (20) registered voters in the Wick Road area. Eleven (11) will decide whether the airport will be annexed.

Air Borne Freight, Pacific Air Freight, Motor City Container, Gladioux Inc., Pure Oil, and Kerr Manufacturing Company are just a few of many industries which could be annexed from Romulus.

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP SETTLEMENT DAY AND BUDGET HEARING

March 24, 1970

The meeting opened with the pledge of Allegiance and was called to order by Supervisor Stoelton at 8:00 P.M.

Members present were Stoelton, Hogan, Hink, Birk, Domcik, Maton, Payne, Attorney Hopson, Engineer Levine and Sec. Stanis. Also attending were 11 citizens.

Motion Hogan, support Hink, to approve as presented the minutes of the March 10th regular meeting. Motion carried.

A letter from Congressman Ford inviting the board to his Annual Municipal Officials Conference on May 7, 8, and 9th held in Washington D.C. He also sent a copy of a telegram he has sent to President Nixon regarding the postal stoppage. Motion Hogan, support Domcik, to receive and file the two correspondences from Congressman Ford. Motion carried.

A correspondence was received from the 34th District Court informing the board that in 1970 the court will be audited. This audit will be paid for by the participating communities instead of the state or county. Motion Hogan, support Birk, to adopt a resolution recommending that the legislature have the responsible people notified. Motion carried.

The 34th District Court also informed the board that House Bill No. 4157, presently in legislation, puts the cost of transcripts to the district control unit instead of the state. Motion Hogan, support Hink, to have the attorney draw up resolutions to oppose these two correspondences. Motion carried.

A copy of a letter directed to Alfred Perry of Romulus Township from the 34th District Court informing them that starting March 9, 1970 Van Buren Township will have the Monday of each week as their day in court. Also attached to the letter was the financial statement for February. Motion Payne, support Domcik, to receive and file. Carried.

An aroused citizen sent a letter in order to bring to the board's attention that some sites in Riverview are illegally tapping into the Downriver Sewage Disposal System. Motion Hogan, support Maton, to direct the Clerk to send a correspondence to Riverview for a reply on this matter. Motion carried.

Wayne County Road Commission submitted a letter regarding a resolution restricting the operation of trucks and commercial vehicles on the streets of the Van Buren Estates Subdivision.

The request for a sand removal permit at Bak and Hull Roads by Mr. Chamberlain was discussed. Motion Payne, support Hink, to table this for further study. Motion carried.

Motion Domcik, support Hink, to accept as presented, the 11th month audit. Motion carried.

Motion Payne, support Birk, to accept as the 1970-1971 Budget. Motion carried.

A bid quotation from the Victor Comptometer for the Treasurer's Office. Motion Hink, support Hogan, to purchase the Victor Series 10 Printing Calculator for $517.50. Motion carried.

Rockwell Manufacturing Co. submitted a bid for power tools for the Water Department. Motion Domcik, support Hogan, to purchase the power tools needed by the Water Department. Motion carried.

The report from Fire Dept. No. 2 was read and filed.

Motion Domcik, support Birk, to pay bills as per voucher. Motion carried.

Motion Payne, support Domcik, to adjourn. Motion carried and the meeting adjourned at 9:25 P.M.

'Get Responsible, Vote Yes For Cityhood,' Says Glinski

ROMULUS—Albert L. Glinski, candidate for Treasurer of City of Romulus, called this week for Romulus voters to "get responsible!"

"There are a lot of things going on in the world these days that we know we don't approve of," the 45-year old self-employed businessman said, "and part of the reason has got to be that too many of us who are supposed to be so-called leaders just have not been responsible enough to our communities."

"My whole life has practically been tied up in handling money, inventories, records and dealing with the public and I'm just as guilty as anyone of too often overlooking certain things in favor of others that seemed to take higher priorities."

"Oh, we've all done a lot of things right, too. We've tried to raise our families by working hard. And tried to pay our bills and taxes by working hard."

"But, somehow, in the process we've frequently overlooked our debt to our society and to the community we're likely asking our kids to live in. We've been too busy too often—or found it too expensive.

"But, the truth, as I see it, is that whatever we work for is only as good as our government. Without good government, our money won't buy much and our property and investments aren't worth as much."

"We wouldn't think of refusing to work hard, pay the price—even sacrifice—to give our families and our children a good home, shelter, food, education and perhaps even a few luxuries. "But what we often overlook is that our families need safe streets, a good environment, police and fire protection, strong codes and enforcements to protect their purchases and investments, some honest recreation outlets and innumerable other services that only a solid community government provides."

"We need protections that our investment in our community is in as good a trust as our investments in our banks—and it wouldn't hurt if it was drawing a little 'interest,' too."

"A government agency is often as not one of the biggest businesses in any town. As I see it, we should elect our administrators and board of directors (Council) for that business just as carefully and agonizingly as we would hire them to direct any million dollar business investment.

"Just by living in Romulus, we are all share holders in it—and with investments in its future."

"We wouldn't hesitate for a minute to be responsible when it comes to updating and modernizing our business—or our homes. I think we owe the same concern for our town, for those who'll come behind us—and for ourselves."

Albert Glinski

"Please get responsible. Please vote yes on City. Please elect Hyle Carmichael as Mayor. And if you can find it within reason for me to ask, please give all the other IQ State candidates and me any possible consideration. I promise you won't regret it. Thank you."

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP BOARD MINUTES

Regular Meeting
April 14, 1970

Sales permits was discussed. Motion Hink, support Payne, to have the attorney draw up an ordinance and permits. Motion carried.

Motion Hogan, support Maton, to direct the engineer and supervisor to draw up plans for an extension of a water line on Michigan Avenue as recommended by the Water and Sewer Commission. Motion carried.

Motion Domcik, support Birk, to accept as presented, the minutes of the April 6th meeting of the Water and Sewer Commission. Motion carried.

Motion Hink, support Hogan, to accept the Water and Sewer Department Budget as presented. Motion carried.

Motion Domcik, support Maton, to adopt the ordinance to regulate the demolition or removal of structures. Motion carried.

Immunization Clinics Scheduled In Huron

NEW BOSTON — The Huron Township Health Committee will present their annual immunization clinic tomorrow.

Clinics will be held at Riverside Elementary School from 9 to 11 a.m. Dr. Angelo Constantinides, Nurse Doreatha Causey, Mrs. Clara Ranke and Mrs. Durall Williams will staff it.

At Hannon Elementary School hours are 9-11 a.m. Dr. John Hillyer, Nurse Mrs. Mary Jan Hopper, Mrs. Betty Johnson and Mrs. Phyllis Tourangeau will staff this one.

Huron Junior High School, hours from 1 to 3 p.m. Dr. Joseph Richert, Nurse Evelyn Waibel, Mrs. Glenice Bosman and Mrs. Suzy Rhodes are staff members.

New Boston Elementary School, Evening Clinic hours will be from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Dr. Russel Proud, Nurse Mrs. Phyllis Tourangeau, Mrs. Joseph Balog, and Mrs. Joyce Lambley will be staff members.

Parental permission by signature is a must. No inoculations will be administered without it.

A charge of 25 cents will cover cost to any one person.

Parents are reminded that children entering kindergarten in September are required to have complete immunization. Also students who are graduating in June and who plan on continuing their education, or going to summer camps. The committee is unable to offer polio this year.

The committee is once again happy to announce that members from the Huron High School Medical Careers Club will assist the Health Committee at the various immunization clinics. Members assisting are:

Linda Sands, Nancy Nowitzke, Gayle Dilks, Ilene Fleszar, Mary Hortert, Pam Wilkerson, Joan Otter, Dawn Dubke, Mel VanDyer, Sharon

There are 14,000 ship passages through the Sault Ste. Marie locks during an average eight month shipping season. The locks raise ships 21 feet from the level of Lake Huron to Lake Superior. Viewing stands enable visitors to practically touch the ships as they lock through, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

Vena, Terri Ferstle, Nancy Tillotson, Linda Gentz, Phyllis Wright, Marjorie Wauer and Debbie Ferguson.

Remember folks that May 7, is the big clinic day and the best insurance you can buy for the continued health of your children.

Remember parents, the students from the Junior High and Senior High School level, need their immunization shots also.

To the Supervisor and Clerk of the Township of Romulus, Wayne County, Michigan.
Sirs:
You are hereby notified that the Board of County Road Commissioners, of the County of Wayne, Michigan, did, at a meeting of said Board held on April 30, 1970, decide and determine that the certain sections of county roads described in the minutes of said meeting of said Board should be absolutely abandoned and discontinued.
The portion of the minutes of said meeting fully describing said sections of county roads is attached hereto and made a part of this notice, which is given under and by virtue of Act 283, of the Public Acts of 1909, as amended.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand at Detroit, Michigan, this 1st day of May, A.D. 1970.
By DONALD R. KRING
Secretary and Clerk of the Board

RESOLUTION
Commissioner Neudeck moved the adoption of the following resolution:
WHEREAS, in accordance with the provisions of Section 18, Chapter IV, Act No. 283 of the Public Acts of 1909, as amended, this Board may, by resolution, absolutely abandon and discontinue any portion of any road under its jurisdiction upon or along which there are no buildings of any character; and
WHEREAS, all that part of the right-of-way of Vining Road abutting the section line common to Sections 21 and 22, T. 35., R. 9 E., Romulus Township, Wayne County, Michigan, lying between the easterly extension of the south line of Grant Road, 66 feet wide, and a line across said right-of-way of Vining Road which makes a south-west angle of 90 degrees 43'28" with the east line of Section 21 at a point located 1961.70 feet north from the east 1/4 corner thereof; ALSO: All that part of the right-of-way of Grant Road which is centered on the East and West 1/4 line of Section 21, T. 35., R. 9 E., Romulus Township, Wayne County, Michigan, and which lies between the North and South 1/4 line of Section 21 and the southerly extension of the west right-of-way line of Vining Road are county roads under the jurisdiction and control of the Board; and
WHEREAS, there are no buildings of any character located upon or along said above described county roads; and
WHEREAS, said county roads are of no use or benefit to the public for highway purposes;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that said county roads be and the same are hereby absolutely abandoned and discontinued and shall cease to exist as public highways; and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Board hereby determines that it is to the best interest of the public that the above described sections of county roads be absolutely abandoned and discontinued and that said sections of roads are hereby absolutely abandoned and discontinued.
The motion was supported by Commissioner Berry and carried by the following vote:
Ayes, Commissioners Berry and Neudeck. Nays, None.

Romulus High Announces Selections To Boys' State

ROMULUS--Three Romulus High School Juniors: Gary Martin, Greg Stevens and Glen Hayes, will represent Romulus at Wolverine Boys' State from June 17-24.
Boys' State is held each year on the M.S.U. campus at East Lansing. This year some 1250 to 1300 boys, from all parts of the state, will assemble on the M.S.U. campus with the intent of setting up a model State government.

The boys will be housed in dorms and take their meals in these same dorms.

Sixteen boys at Romulus Senior High School were nominated for this year's Boys' State program. Nominations came from members of the Romulus High School Social Studies Department.

Harry Willnus, social studies teacher and coordinator of the Boys' State program, told the sixteen nominees that if they wished to be a candidate for the honor of representing Romulus at Boys' State they would be required to:

- *Prepare and deliver to a Screening Committee a speech entitled, America Today: This is What I Think;
- *Answer questions posed to them by members of the Screening Committee;
- *Submit a resume of their Junior and Senior High School activities to the Committee;

Of the original sixteen boys, ten presented themselves as candidates. These ten boys were Gary Martin, Frank Szczepanski, Frank Mayeran, Tony Hoffman, James Long, Greg Stevens, Larry Sanders, Ron Wynn, Mike Herman and Glen Hayes.

Postal Annex For Romulus Detailed

ROMULUS--A contract has been awarded to provide new quarters for the Parcel Post and Annex at Romulus, Postmaster General Winton M. Blount has announced.

The new quarters will be located at 11376 Hunt St.

Under the Post Office Department's lease construction program, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis A. Roux, of Northville have already constructed a building there but it has never been occupied. The Department will rent the building for a basic period of 3 years with renewal options running through three years.

The building has 3,724 square feet of interior space, 2,691 square feet of grass at front, and 11,200 square feet for parking and maneuvering of postal vehicles, Romulus Postmaster, George Austin reported.

Blount explained that the Department's capital

Michigan's western boundary on Lake Michigan includes more than 500 miles of sand beaches, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

investment will be limited to postal equipment and that the building will remain under private ownership and on local real estate tax rolls.

"This contract is one step closer to improving postal operations for the area," Blount said.

"President Nixon wants the American people to have the best postal service in the world, and this administration plans to completely modernize the Post Office to assure that kind of service. This project is but one facet of that modernization program."

Candidate's Backgrounds

Ellis T. Pennington Council

Mrs. Vivian Hess,
Clerk

She graduated from Wilson Intermediate School, Southwestern High School, Detroit; and correspondence courses in addition to night school work.

On qualifications she stated that she has been both with the employee and employer and understands both sides and she is not afraid to stand up for the right issues.

On the election issues she said, "We all know we will eventually go into a city. So it might as well be now. I know there are alot of things in the Charter I would like to see changed, but I believe they can be taken care of later.

"Everyone, including myself, is concerned about the taxes in running a city, but with some level-headed people in office they can be kept down. If I am elected I can assure all taxpayers I will do all in my power to help keep them down."

Democrats Schedule Meeting

BELLEVILLE — The Belleville-Van Buren Democratic Club has scheduled a meeting for May 15.

The meeting will be held at Rogalle's Lounge, located at Haggerty Rd., near I-94 Expressway.

ROMULUS — Voters in Romulus Township will cast ballots tomorrow on a proposed City Charter.

There are 43 candidates seeking various offices called for under the provisions of the Charter. Brief background sketches on additional candidates follow:

PENNINGTON, Ellis T., 42, currently a member of the township board of trustees, has been a resident of the Romulus community for the last 20 years. He is a foreman at the Romulus Plant of Kelsey-Hayes Company.

Pennington and his wife, Mary Lou, are parents of three children, Carol Sue, 21; Rodney, 19; and Theresa Ann, 13. The family resides at 10268 Romaine.

He attended Wheelright High School, Kentucky, and graduated in 1946.

He was a candidate for Highway Commissioner in 1962 and for Romulus Township Trustee in 1966. He served as Highway Commissioner 1962-64 and was elected Romulus Trustee in 1966. He is chairman of the Romulus Township Recreation from 1966 to now.

Pennington served in the Army and was honorably discharged in 1947 (after three years) as a Master Sergeant.

On seeking the office of city councilman, Pennington said, "I want to retain the position I now hold as a representative of the taxpayers of Romulus."

On qualifications, he stated, "I have served as a township trustee four years. I served two years as Highway Commissioner and four years as chairman of the township's recreation department. I know some of the problems of the taxpayers of Romulus. I will run on my voting record at township meetings for the past four years."

He stated that among the major issues is the election of experienced people to public office, maintaining equal representation to all citizens of Romulus. I am running as an independent candidate endorsed by no group or party, no promises made in

BLOW THAT HORN! And that is just what John Petrasky and Brenda Oelke, members of the OKLAHOMA's orchestra will be doing when the famed musical opens at the Belleville High's new auditorium May 15. The musical is an all-school event.

Westerman Gets Unit Awards

ROMULUS — Navy Lieutenant David L. Westerman, husband of the former Miss Barbara F. Fiesar of 30551 King Rd, participated in competitive exercises with Helicopter Anti-submarine Squadron Five (ASW-5) aboard the aircraft carrier USS Wasp near Quonset Point, R.I.

His unit won the Battle Efficiency "E" and Rhode Island Red Rooster Award for battle readiness, the ASW "A" and Arnold J. Isbell Awards for Anti-submarine Warfare excellence and the Commander Fleet Air Quonset Dipper Award for having the most outstanding crew during the last period.

Going to OKLAHOMA May 21; have room for 950.

Babe Ruth Tryouts Completed

BELLEVILLE — With the tryouts for Babe Ruth Baseball completed, the Board of Governors of Belleville Van Buren Babe Ruth Baseball League reported that this year Babe Ruth had one of the finest looking bunch of baseball minded boys try out.

The individual team draft of the boys from the tryouts have been completed, Herb B. Mida, President stated.

The boys that have been picked up through the team draft, will be notified by the individual team manager when to turn out for practice.

Boys that have gone through the tryouts and are not notified of being picked up by a team, will be held on an availability list by the league and will be the only boys that will be called for replacement to teams as needed.

'I-Q Group' In Plea

of professional quality and with unquestioned integrity is any community's best insurance against feared high taxes."

"The IQ Group was organized as a result of concern over what might happen if we don't get people of integrity and quality into public offices," he added.

Hopson said the IQ Group's endorsements were based on assuring such candidates being available to the electorate.

"We have endorsed Hyle J. Carmichael as Mayor because we feel he has proved himself as a professional administrator capable of administering a multi million dollar business (which Romulus city government will be) with unquestioned integrity."

"We selected Albert L. Glinki for endorsement as Treasurer because he offers the best background and best qualifications of the candidates for the office. He has been a resident and businessman here for many, many years and is well known as a trustworthy and capable gentleman."

"We sought out and endorsed Leonard J. Folmar, a bright, young lifetime Romulus resident and college graduate, for Clerk because he has experience in city administration (as aide in the Urban Renewal department) and has a promising future in municipal government. There is no doubt in our mind he will be an outstanding office holder."

Concerning candidates for Council, Hopson said:

"Our endorsement were based (1) on quality and integrity of the individual; (2) a proved willingness to be active and take part in community activities even without being on a public payroll; and (3) an acceptance of the individuals as leaders in their own neighborhood... and they come from all sections from Romulus."

The endorsed Council candidates are:

Fred. J. Block, 45, a self employed businessman in Romulus for 20 years.

Thomas R. Williams, 43, a 31 year resident of Romulus and property claims examiner for TransAmerica Insurance.

William M. Oakley, 39, a lifelong resident and longtime businessman, who is currently a member of Romulus School Board and was a member of the Charter Commission.

Thomas C. Hopson, 34, a resident of Romulus 32 years, active in civic and education circles, district manager for Equitable Life.

Brooker R. Edwards, 43, resident 17 years who graduated from high school and attended college in Mississippi before moving to Michigan, employed with Ford Motor Company.

Robert J. Walicki, 35, resident of the community four years, cost reduction specialist with Ford Motor Company, active in civic associations and president of Romulus Goodfellows.

John C. (Jack) Rarick, 32, resident of Romulus 4½ years, head of several civic organizations, active with others, college graduate, employed as a sales representative.

"We do not claim exclusivity of candidates with integrity and quality, but we do guarantee all the candidates who received our endorsement have it," Hopson concluded.

Rotarians Attend Conference

NEW BOSTON — The New Boston Rotary Club was represented at the recently held District 640 Annual Conference at Cincinnati, Ohio.

President Elect, Gene Rakotz, and Secretary elect Bob Carey were in attendance. They were both accompanied to Cincinnati by their wives.

Both representatives gave a full report of the conference at the last meeting. President Rakotz said "If you fellows have an opportunity like Bob and I to attend those conferences, by all means do so."

Other local Rotarians and their wives were: Harold Radiski, Jr., Westland; Bill Meadowcroft, Inkster; and Bill Price, Highland Park.

ROMULUS — The Romulus Homeowners Association has brought to this community a "First" in "Candidates Night".

With over 175 in attendance, dignity was brought to a pre-election candidates presentation.

All campaign material was barred from the meeting floor until every candidate had their opportunity to speak.

A standing ovation was given by both the candidates and the audience on the presentation.

No candidate was given preference over the other. Their order of speaking was determined by lot, all agreed no partiality was shown.

Title I Shows Program In Grand Rapids

BELLEVILLE—The Van Buren Title I Project was presented at the State Compensatory Convention on Tuesday, April 28, 1970, at the Pantlind Hotel in Grand Rapids.

The project depicts the program that some of the elementary teachers have initiated in their classrooms to increase reading skills and decrease disruptive behavior. These areas are essential to the progressive development of the academic and behavioral responsibilities of elementary students.

In view of state-wide figures concerning the rising rate of juvenile delinquency and early drug abuse, it is imperative that the elementary schools become more effective in the early detection and prevention of potential disruptive and/or delinquent behavior, said both Mrs. Ella Woolery, director of title I and elementary readiness and Mrs. Leona Kozma, title I reading consultant.

Our efforts today may pay rich dividends in tomorrow's adult society.

BELLEVILLE — A public hearing on proposed mobile home rules and regulations of the city's zoning ordinance will be held May 18.

B. Ward Smith, city attorney, has drafted mobile home provisions for amendment to the zoning ordinance of Belleville.

The city's planning commission has already approved the proposed amendment.

Smith reported that the proposed amendment contained provisions "that will make any mobile home park any mobile home park erected in Belleville a model residential community."

The proposed amendment featured among its requirements the following:

*Each mobile home site shall contain a minimum area of 5,000 square feet.

*Each mobile home site shall provide for a front yard of at least 20 feet ... and a rear yard of at least 15 feet.

*Two offstreet parking spaces shall be provided for each mobile home site.

*The tract or parcel of land being proposed for a mobile home site shall be of such land area as to provide for a minimum of 75 mobile homes.

*Campers, boats, trailers, snowmobiles and similar recreational equipment owned by the occupant may be stored on individual mobile home sites, but storage shall be in the rear yard only.

TITLE III WORKSHOP SPEAKER — Dr. Harold Lockett, psychiatrist at Hawthorne Medical School for children and President of Ann Arbor School Board, was the featured speaker at a recent workshop with Title III Teachers held at Rawsonville Elementary School. He discussed development from birth through age 12.

Teachers Hear Dr. Lockett

BELLEVILLE — Dr. Harold Lockett, psychiatrist at Hawthorne Medical Center for Children, and president of the Ann Arbor School Board, conducted a recent workshop with the Title III teachers at the Rawsonville Elementary School.

Dr. Lockett discussed child development from birth through age twelve. He reviewed with the teachers ways that children act which indicate that they are having conflicts which they cannot handle, or which indicate that they are emotionally or mentally ill.

It is estimated that well over 10 percent of the children in the public schools have emotional problems which are handicapping to a severe extent.

Currently, there is no facility within the Van Buren Schools to help these children, although many are referred to Huron Valley Guidance Clinic, or to other outside agencies or professionals.

When this much help is not necessary, or when it is impossible for a family to take a child for such help, there is nothing that can be done.

Dr. Lockett said that schools, today, often create problems for children rather than helping them learn to cope. It is anticipated that this problem may get much worse, before anything is done to prevent these difficulties.

Dr. Lockett will work with the Title III teachers again in June.

Spanish explorer Coronado is believed to have been the first white man to enter what is today OKLAHOMA.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITOR:

"Bring Seniors Back Home to Graduate."

We just finished our so called Community Auditorium where they are going to have concerts and evening plays, but our Seniors are left out. Most of them spent their whole 13 years in the Belleville schools, but when they are seniors they are out-casts and are run out of town to graduate.

I say the seniors are a part of the community and their graduation belongs to the people of the community to see. I know the big shots will say there isn't enough room. Phooey! When they started to build it they should of thought of them, I say there is room.

The seniors can have their parents and family in the auditorium and have closed circuit T.V. to the other people in the Gymnasium and if it's really nice it could be held outdoors.

I bet most of the seniors want to graduate in Belleville, where their home and families and friends are.

I know I'm not the only one that feels this way.

A SENIOR PARENT OF 70"

TO THE EDITOR:

As a concerned citizen, I would like to register my strong disapproval over recent action taken by the Van Buren Township Board of Appeals.

The Board allowed the erection of a new sign this past week at the Belleville Shell Service Station, 11450 Belleville Rd.

This sign, by the station attendant's own estimate, measures sixteen feet by sixteen feet, and rises from 96 to 100 feet in the air. Yet it does not, according to a conversation I had with Mr. Ed Stoelton, township supervisor, exceed any township regulations in size or height. Conceivably, next month or next year, an even larger and higher sign could be erected here, or along any other road in Van Buren - if we are willing to sit back and let it happen.

At this time we are all very concerned about the many serious problems facing our country and our world, and one neon sign more or less may seem rather inconsequential. But I think now is also the time to look around and see just what we are doing to ruin the visual beauty of this countryside of ours - and to ask ourselves if our children, and our grandchildren, will look up in wonder at the beauty of our trees, or in disgust at a towering forest of gigantic neon signs that may one day completely line our roadsides and dominate our skylines.

Visual pollution must be stopped - now.

Norma Stoyenoff

To the Editor:

I believe that the wrecking ordinance is wrong. If a retired farmer wants to tear down so much as an outhouse, he will have to pay 25 dollars outright and post 1,000 dollars bond. Then, of course, an inspector will have to make sure the job was done properly.

This ordinance appears to me to be a total waste of paper. Granted, something is needed to prevent eyesores caused by half-demolished buildings. Why then, can't there be an ordinance passed that levies fines on owners of such eyesores?

"The bond posting would insure a disposal of such debris and cleaning up." It certainly will. That is, if anyone will have the cash available to even attempt to demolish an average of five or more farm buildings.

And may I ask at this point, which would be more preferable: an obvious hole in the ground that once was a basement, or a building with sound-looking rotted floorboards? Just be sure to lock your kids in the back yard so that they will be unable to "play" in such buildings.

Township Seeks Bids On Mowing

NEW BOSTON—Bids for the mowing of Huron Township cemeteries will be accepted at the Huron Township office, 37290 Huron River Drive, Mrs. Wilma J. Wilson, township clerk, announced.

The bids must be filed on or before 8 p.m., May 13. For further information as to requirements, prospective bidders can contact the township office. Telephone 753-4466.

Youngsters Visit Farm

ROMULUS — Romulus Head-Start youngsters and their parents, 50 strong, enjoyed a visit last week to Upland Hills Farm at Oxford, Michigan.

On this occasion the children had an opportunity not only to see the many farm animals and fowl, including cows, goats, rabbits, sheep, chickens, roosters, turkeys, but also to actually touch and pet them. Each also had the rare treat of actually milking a cow and goat.

The children and parents also enjoyed a hay ride and had picnic lunch on the grounds.

The outing was under the direction of Mrs. Janet Block and Mrs. Dorothy Weekly, Head Start teachers.

Going to OKLAHOMA May 16; have room for 950.

Square Dance Announced

ROMULUS — Allemand left, swing your partner and do-si-do right on over to Cory Elementary School on May 9, because Cory PTA is having a Square Dance.

The caller, Joe Reed, from Belleville, will start at 7:30 p.m., and finish up at 11 p.m.

Admission is $2 a couple. Refreshments will be served and there will be a drawing for door prizes, she said.

Mrs. Gloria Chandler,

publicity chairman, invited everyone to come and bring along some friends.

Cory School is located at 35200 Smith Rd, just off Wayne Rd.

Admission is $2 a couple. Refreshments will be served and there will be a drawing for door prizes, she said.

Mrs. Gloria Chandler,

Pack 830 Presents Awards

ROMULUS — A camp-fire ceremony was held on April 28, when the Cub Scouts of Pack 830 met at Hayti Elementary School.

Jack Rarick, cub master, awarded Mike Kaczynski his Wolf Badge and a Gold and Silver arrow. Mike Buggy received his Wolf Badge, one Gold Arrow and a Bear Book. Steve Losacco was given a Silver Arrow.

Attendance Pins were earned by Scott McKay, for one year's perfect attendance, and by Rick Zavitz for two year's attendance. Rick also was given his Webelos book, pin and scarf.

Two year Service Stars were presented to Den Mothers; Mrs. Donna Zavitz and Mrs. Nolen Sussine.

The boys received their Pine Wood Derby kits to have ready for try-outs in May with finals in June.

Cub Scout Pack 736 Plants A Green Belt

ROMULUS — Members of Cub Scout Pack 736 decided to do something about local pollution problems and did just that last Saturday.

The cubs acted after studying pollution at school. St. Aloysius School, Romulus, pack sponsors.

Their leaders and den mothers supervised the Cub Scouts in a house to house campaign for funds to finance the purchase of trees.

The trees were planted last Saturday, 26 of them, along the I-94 Expressway at McBride, where some of the families who donated funds reside. Other trees will be planted elsewhere in the area.

A request to purchase trees from the state met with failure. The Wayne County Road Commission was contacted and agree to sell Locust Trees to the Cub Scouts for their proposed Green Belt.

The road commission charged $2.50 per tree, but later donated them to the pack. Funds will be used for further tree projects.

Larry's Landscaping of Romulus assisted the pack by donating a load of black dirt to plant the trees.

Den mothers who supervised and assisted the pack in making their anti-pollution project a success were: Mrs. Charles Haubrich, Mrs. Carol Helwig, of Den Two; and Mrs. Elvira Molnar and Mrs. Mary Bosary of Den Three.

Charter Support

ROMULUS — The executive board of the Romulus Homeowners Association Monday came out unanimously in support of the proposed City Charter for Romulus Township.

FIRING LINE — Belleville's Marty Miller lets the ball fly against Wayne Memorial in Friday's nonleague encounter that left him and his teammates in the loss column. However, it wasn't a personal setback for the Tiger nurler who was relieved in the fourth by Ed Branam who was tagged with the 10-4 setback.

Southpaw Is Providing Romulus Key To Title

Lee Ballard, a 5 foot, 11 inches junior southpaw, is providing Romulus with the key to the Twin Valley Conference baseball throne room.

Whether coach Lowell Johnson's Eagles move into the champion's chambers, however, will depend on how they handle the defending champ, Ecorse, a perennial title contender.

Pitching the Eagles to their sixth straight victory, Ballard chalked up a four-hit, 15-2 victory in the Eagles' league debut against Willow Run last Monday.

He came back to stop league "dropouts," Hamtramck, 5-1, on Thursday.

Romulus' league encounter with River Rouge was postponed last Wednesday because of the racial turmoil in that city. The game will be rescheduled for a later date.

In the 49 innings Ballard has worked, he has notched 71 strikeouts. In the 15-2 triumph of Willow Run's Flyers, he whiffed 12, walked three and scattered four hits while his teammates backed him up with 13 hits.

Ballard helped his cause along with a three-run homer that sparked a four-run opening frame. Frank Mayerand and Leon Janes were aboard when the southpaw pitcher connected.

Also carding his second round-tripper of the season was Paul Seestedt who had a two-run clout in the sixth.

Of those 13 hits, Ray Horn also chipped in four (all singles) for five and Mayerand socked two for five, including a triple and single.

Hamtramck, which dropped out of the league last year, fell behind 5-0 against Ballard, then spoiled his bid for a shutout when the Cosmos scored in the top of the seventh.

Ballard, with a dazzling two-hitter, fanned 16 and walked three in carding his fourth personal triumph of the campaign.

Romulus got to losing pitcher, George Kotovich in the first as Horn walked and moved to second on Bill Worden's single. When Seestedt was hit by a wild pitch, Mayerand, the next up, had a bases-loaded opportunity.

He hit a sacrifice fly, leaving Ballard again with the same chance however, he grounded to short who muffed the ball, that miscue led to the second run.

Chris Glinki followed with a single to score the second run.

Romulus added two more runs in the next innings as Bruce Jackson singled and went to second when Worden walked. Janes singled to fill the bases.

Kotovich then threw wild on two consecutive pitches and the runners scored.

After Monday's showdown with Ecorse, Romulus will host Willow Run on Thursday in their second meeting of the season.

There's interesting NEWS in today's Want Ads.

Belleville Is In 1st Place

Now that the famine's over, Belleville coach Vito Kaminski is teaching his boys table manners in preparation of the feast.

After five disappointing setbacks the Tigers bared their claws and mauled three straight Suburban Six League opponents and all of a sudden found themselves in a first place tie with Livonia Bentley.

Bentley eked out a skimpy 3-2 win over the Tigers previously but with his squad's new momentum Kaminski is optimistic his boys can turn the tables when the Bulldogs come to

After Shaky Start

Belleville for the rematch on Monday.

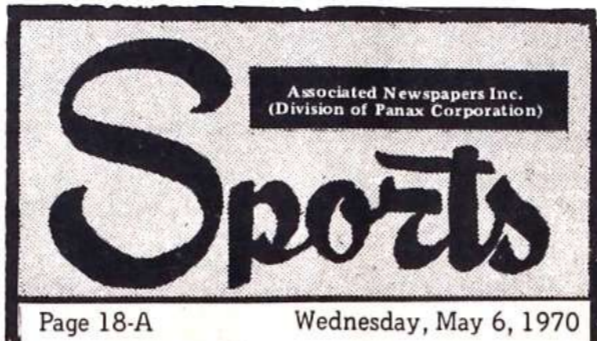

"We've got a good spirited bunch and I was proud of the way they've bounced back ... we've started winning now and it's surprising because we still haven't started to hit," Kaminski commented.

Dennis Badato spurred the Tigers against Redford Union in a makeup contest as he gunned them into a 1-0 first inning lead with a long home run. He figured in the three run third inning too when he was safe on an error after Larry Fix singled and Jerry Cheek walked. Ed Gielinski then rifled a single to knock in two more runs.

John Thompson and Fix teamed up in the fourth to get in the last run as Fix drove Thompson in on a single after Thompson himself had singled and worked his way around to third.

Ecorse Spoils Romulus Debut

In or out of the league, Romulus thinslads and rookie coach Wayne Schimming found nothing but defeat last week.

In their Twin Valley Conference debut, the Eagles dropped a 85-32 dual meet decision to Ecorse, the defending conference champs. They managed to win four of the 14 events.

Meanwhile, Romulus also fell 76-38 to Inkster in a league contest. This time the Eagles claimed firsts in three events, including two of four field events.

Willard Higgins won the high jump at 5 feet, 8 inches for the Eagles while teammate David Brown stopped at 12 feet for the best pole vaulting performance. David Jones came up with a Romulus win in the two-mile run.

Against Ecorse, Romulus' Ron Buckley soared 19 feet, 9 1/2 inches to win the long jump and Gary Martin cleared 5 feet, 8 inches for an Eagles win in the high jump.

Garden City Sets Dates

The 1970 Garden City softball season got underway at the East High Lighted Field on Tuesday, May 12, with the first pitch scheduled at 6:15 p.m.

The inaugural contest will pit Burton — Plumbing, against Burger King.

Following at 7:30 p.m. will be last year's league and state district champs George Smith Realty, matching their talent against a revamped and an improved Joe D's Bar Squad.

A.J. Vaughn has taken over the reins for Smith, while durable Jack Bourke still controls the Barmen.

Newcomer, Bluebonnet Lounge, handled by John Pianowski, will take on McFarlane Bros. Realtors, managed by Jim Gardiner. McFarlane's roster is made up primarily of 1969's strong entry, Playmates Lounge.

Wrapping up the first night's action will be Jack O'Callaghan's gang, Santeiu and Son, against playoff winner Garden City Sporting Goods, returning under Roger Swarthout.

The league appears more balanced than in recent years, and most observers predict a close race among the several clubs. Prime favorites, however, appear to be Smith Realty, Sporting Goods, McFarlane's, and Burton Plumbing.

Schedule for Thursday, May 14

6:15 p.m. Sporting Goods-Bluebonnet
7:30 p.m. McFarlane - Joe D's
8:45 p.m. Geo. Smith-Burger King
10:00 p.m. Burton Plumbing - Conner's Sheet Metal

120-high hurdles event into the Romulus win column when he crossed the finish line in 16.4. Brown repeated his pole vault performance to also take a first place.

Romulus is scheduled to meet River Rouge on Thursday.

Huron Starts Swinging

Chiefs Win 2 Of 3

Huron batters went at league and nonleague rivals swinging, coming out last week with two out of three contests with victories.

"Our hitting was the best I've seen it," said Huron coach Ron Smith. "We went crazy at the plate. Now if we could get some pitching we would be all-right."

Huron carved out 10 hits in beating league rival Grosse Ile, 6-5, in nine innings. Butch Suemnick who took over the mound duties in the last frame in relief of starter Ron Thompson earned the triumph.

Thompson, a sophomore, pitched eight innings before coach Smith decided to give him a rest. He struck out seven and walked five.

Huron launched its hitting attack in the opening inning when the Chiefs scored three runs on back-to-back doubles by Suemnick and Jack Gracia after Don Delano was safe on an error.

Jerry Dulecki rapped a one-run single to score the third run.

Huron padded its margin by one run in the fourth after Grosse Ile scored two in the top of the inning. The Chiefs got on the scoreboard on Thompson's efforts. After getting on on an error, he went to second and third via consecutive wild throws and scored on a fielder's choice.

Grosse Ile rallied to tie the score at 5-all in their seventh but Huron countered in the ninth with Bob Guntow getting aboard on an error. Dan Dilks singled and with men on first and second, Dale Vaughn pitched into the dirt and the ball got by his catcher.

Pinch-hitter Tony Gracia struck out. When the catcher failed to nab the third strike that got by him, Thompson rushed home with the winning run.

Huron sent 15 men to the plate and scored 10 times in walloping nonleague rival, Mason, 12-4 last week.

But in the victory coach Smith lost the pitching services of Craig Adaline, the winning hurler, who reinjured his hand. Adaline went five innings, whipped seven and struck three.

Suemnick, Gracia and Dulecki all collected two hits in three trips to the plate.

Jefferson rallied for five runs in the last three frames to earn their first league decision at the expense of Huron, 7-6. Thompson took the loss.

With two-away, Huron rallied in the last inning but fell short by a run. Dave Teets tripled to ignite the comeback and Delano singled him in, then stole second.

Suemnick, who had gone three for three prior to his final appearance at the plate, bounced out to the pitcher Rick Henry, for the third out.

Pontiac Jets By Stevenson

Livonia Stevenson managed to salvage two first places against Inter-Lakes track power, Pontiac Northern, and that's about all coach Paul Holmberg's Spartans managed.

Two-Miler, Doug Kurtis, set the pace in his specialty, crossed the finish line first with a 10:05 clocking for one of those two Spartan firsts.

Holmberg's mile relay foursome of Greg Wilson, Dave Stipo, Tom Pedersen, and Bob Johnston combined for a winning time of 3:39.

Pettus Collects 2 More Gold Medals at Albion

Belleville's Garrade Pettus added to his personal "gold reserves" Saturday as he picked up two first places at the Albion Relays.

Pettus, a 16-year-old junior, led the Tiger assault on medals as he won the high jump with a leap of six feet, and also captured top honors in the long jump with a 21 feet, 5 inches performance.

Belleville also received a first place performance from half-miler Mike Fant who turned up with a 2:01 on the cold and sluggish track.

Coach Ken Head's Tigers finished third place, trailing St. Joe's and Jackson in over-all team points.

Larry Merritt also settled for a pair of medals - a silver for his 12 feet, 8 inches in the pole vault and a bronze for a 21.2 seconds effort in the low hurdles.

Belleville recorded two other fourth places as the mile relay team of Bill Kaulitz, Dave Lorentson, Allen Vandecar and Mike Fant finished in 3:44.

Jon Cross earned a fourth in the 2-mile, finishing a couple of steps ahead of teammate Lonnie Clark.

A shuffle in the lineup cost coach Head a 60-58

Suburban Six Conference dual meet decision to Allen Park last week.

Experimenting with his talent, the Tiger coach came up on the short end after failing to take a second in the pole vault. Belleville, however, did place first in the event, Merritt tying a field and varsity record with a 13 feet, 10 inches performance.

Fant had a good day in the quarter-mile as he was clocked in 50.5 while always reliable Pettus chipped in firsts in the high jump, long jump and high hurdles.

excellent in classrooms as well as athletics," said West High coach Dean Shipman of his protegee. "I feel privileged to have coached such an outstanding young man."

Shipman also said that he and Stewart have been invited to Colorado State University next week to view the campus and facilities. The university is offering Rick a scholarship.

There have been, of course, scores of other offers, but the young athlete is quite undecided which school he will attend after graduation in June at this time.

Royal Lady Heads DRC's Lads 'N Lassie Stakes

Detroit Race Course, Livonia, Michigan - Royal Lady, a crack two-year-old colt from the D.A. MacDonald stable, heads a list of 38 nominations in the $15,000-added Lads 'N Lassies Handicap Saturday (May 9) at the Detroit Race Course.

The 5 1/2 furlong event will be Royal Lady's first shot at stake stardom after easily whipping a field of seven budding freshmen April 26, in a $4,200 allowance sprint over a shorter 4 1/2 furlongs.

Expecting to contest the issue are E. Lowrance's, Nice Holm, and T.A. Morrison's filly, She Is Gorgeous, who finished third and fourth respectively to Royal Lady last month.

Saturday's Lads 'N Lassies is DRC's first major stakes for two-year-olds that will be a stepping stone for the $25,000 - added Graduation

Stakes to be run at the Livonia oval on July 25.

The Lads 'N Lassies is the feature event on Saturday's 10-race card. Post parade for Saturday's is 2:10, during the weekdays the horses go postward at 3:20 P.M.

Senior co-captain Dennis Stanczuk (Clawson) led Wayne State University's 1969-70 swimming team in scoring with 119.25 points in 12 meets.

HEAD FIRST — This Wayne player hits the dirt as he quickly gets back in Friday's game against Belleville. Belleville, after coming alive in the Suburban Six, dropped the above nonleague contest, 10-4.

Belleville Is In First

Gielinski picked up the pitching win and incredibly he threw only 68 pitches despite giving up nine hits.

Dick Wenzel four hit Allen Park in the Tigers 3-1 win and Badatoti supplied him with a two run single in the fifth to give him enough money in the bank to pull out his first pitching win of the season.

Dan Smith walked, Gielinski singled and two sacrifices — one a bunt by Bill Mida and the other a fly by Cheek — got in the first run.

Cheek singled, Thompson walked, and freshman Mike Dansard was safe on catcher's interference to set the stage for Badatoti's clutch hit in the fifth inning.

Wenzel struck right back in the 5-1 victory over Trenton for his second win and this time he allowed only five hits and he whiffed 10 foes.

Bada was right back with his menacing bat too, as he ignited a four run fourth inning with a single. Smith followed with a walk in that inning and Gielinski jammed the bases a moment later when he was safe on an infield hit.

Thompson quickly sent two men home with a two base smash and Dansard got another in on a fielder's choice. The last run scored when Mida grounded out.

Again it was Badatoti supplying the offensive thrust in the fifth as he smoked a double with two outs and eventually scored when Gielinski was safe on an error.

The only low spot in the week was a 10-4 non-league loss to Wayne, but with a fistful of league wins coach Kaminskis wasn't able to get too depressed.

Tomorrow his squad returns to the league was against Redford Union again. On Monday they played Plymouth who had three losses going into the game.

Beginning Friday Belleville will start play in the Wyandotte Tournament which will cover the weekend.

Don Robinson, Wayne State University senior track co-captain, has led WSU's outdoor team in scoring in each of his three prior seasons and also been voted team MVP each year.

Belleville To Host Wrestlers

There's "Big Time Wrestling" in the future for Belleville and area fans who can see a flock of pros battle it out at Belleville High on May 19.

Ringside seats are priced at $3 while general admission is $2.

Action begins at 8:30 in the school gym.

Oldtime Tax Payments Now Just A Memory

By JIM BRADLEY

WAYNE--On April 22, Jerome Brothers paid $1.08 in full for state, county and school taxes.

Of course, the year was 1854 and the state was Indiana. The faded receipt was only one of a number that an elderly Wayne couple came across recently while looking through a large old wooden trunk in their home at 3629 Clark St., Wayne.

Henry Dalton and his wife, Elizabeth, rambled back in memory for more than three hours one night not long ago--an escape from the ever-increasing burden of present day taxes.

Dalton was born on Sept. 27, 1893, in Vickory, Ohio, not far from the county seat of Fremont. The papers belonged to Mrs. Dalton's grandfather, Jerome Brothers, and many of the receipts, documents and papers date back to the mid-1800's.

A tax receipt dated March 19, 1859, showed taxes had jumped to a startling $6.41 for county, school, special school, township, sinking fund, poll and personal property taxes for the year.

Mrs. Dalton, four years younger than her husband, inherited the priceless relics of a never-to-be-reclaimed era. But the Daltons don't care. The blessings of reverie are enough to compensate for many discomforts now suffered by ballooning tax bills.

The white-haired Dalton, his face creased with many lines, speaks softly in recalling the past. Leafing through the numerous financial papers, he smiled and slowly shook his head.

"So much is being said about taxes today that I get a kick out of looking at the old tax rates and prices," he says.

"I can remember when my dad kept books on the farm. One year he sold $600 worth of goods and made enough to pay a hired man. We made 50 cents for a 10-hour day--and we lived pretty well, considering today's prices and all," the native Hoosier recalls.

Dalton and his wife came to Wayne in 1943, living here all of the intervening years except for a time between 1964-68 when they stayed in Cape Coral, Fla.

"My dad sold dressed hogs for two-and-a-half cents a pound and we made out pretty well. One day, though, the price of eggs went up from six to 18 cents a dozen and everybody started raising chickens," he reflected.

"People thought the prices were very high then, but eggs came back down to six cents-a-dozen during the depression in the 1930's."

Dalton worked in a French cafe in Valpariso, Indiana, during the lean years of depression and also recalls the times it was hard to make ends meet.

There's a torn and bleached envelope, dated Nov. 20, 1891, among the historic collection of memories. The writing is scrawled in ink across the faded stationery and promises to make payment "for value received" as soon as possible.

While Henry Dalton and his wife love to recall those years so dear to their hearts, he strokes his snow-white hair and smiles at the difficult times people had in paying bills before the turn of the century.

Maybe times haven't changed so much after all.

Shift Corporation Duties

Michael L. Dow will assume the duties of a newly created position of executive vice president of Panax Corporation in a re-alignment of executive duties announced by President John P. McGoff.

Dow has served as vice president and treasurer since September, 1963, when the company was incorporated. As executive vice president, he will be responsible for the total operating division of the company.

Clarence E. Rhodes will handle the corporation's public relations and marketing programs as vice president of that function.

Rhodes has been vice president of the company since September, 1963, also and for the past three years has been in charge of the company's operation and newspaper publishing and printing in Lower Michigan.

Eldon C. Gensheimer has also been given new responsibilities. Gensheimer will be the general manager for operation in southern Michigan, which includes: The Associated Newspapers, The Ypsilanti Press, The Mellus Newspapers, The Ingham County News, Inco Graphics and Maintenance Service Inc. of Ypsilanti.

Gensheimer joined the company in July, 1968, as general manager of The Ypsilanti Press and, in September of 1969, became regional manager of southeastern Michigan.

Martin N. Hein, formerly general manager of The Mt. Pleasant and Alma daily newspapers, will become general manager for operation in central Michigan. Hein started as advertising manager of the then weekly Alma Record in June of 1965.

Panax operating units include: The Mining Journal Marquette; The Iron Mountain News, Iron Mountain; The Escanaba Daily Press, Escanaba; The Daily Times-News; Mt. Pleasant; The Daily Record-Leader, The Ypsilanti Press, Ypsilanti; (all daily newspapers); The Associated Newspapers, The Mellus Newspapers and the Ingham County News (a total of 19 weekly editions); Inco Graphics, Mason and Mt. Pleasant; Maintenance Service, Inc., East Lansing and Ypsilanti; Kalamazoo Printing Machinery Company, Kalamazoo; and radio station WFMK, East Lansing.

HENRY DALTON — "Eighteen cents a dozen for eggs was outrageous!"

New Classified Ad Head Appointed At Associated

Virginia R. Schrader, a veteran of six years in newspaper work, has been named classified advertising manager of The Associated Newspapers, Inc.,

VIRGINIA R. SCHRADER

Press in 1964 as a teletype operator and receptionist.

She also has worked as a receptionist, circulation department staff member and as entertainment editor for the Ypsilanti newspaper.

A native of Detroit, Mrs. Schrader graduated from Southwestern High School and has attended Wayne State University. She also worked for one year at Lazar's Department Store in Wayne.

Her husband, Ralph, has worked 19 years as an operating engineer at Gypsum Erectors Inc. in Garden City. The Schraders, who live at 1815 Arthur St. in Westland, have been married for 23 years and have two children. — David 22, a staff sergeant in the U.S. Army in Japan, and Linda, 19, a student nurse at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit.

Mrs. Schrader replaces Charles Dickson, who resigned to join the advertising staff of the Dearborn Heights Leader.

Mrs. Schrader, whose appointment was announced today by Panax Corp. regional manager Eldon G. Gensheimer, will be in charge of all in-office classified advertising sales and head a staff of 10 sales persons.

A resident of Westland for 24 years, Mrs. Schrader has worked the last four years in the classified advertising department of The Ypsilanti Press. She began working for the former Western Wayne

Kolarov Named To Canvassers

President Carl Morris, of the Wayne County Intermediate School Board, has announced the appointment of Milton Kolarov, Claims Officer of the Manufacturers National Bank, as the new member of the Wayne County Intermediate Board of Canvassers.

Kolarov, who resides at 35760 Brush St., Wayne, replaces Milton Hack of Westland, who has left the community.

The law requires that two members of each political party serve on the Wayne County Intermediate Board of Canvassers. The Board of Canvassers consists of the following members:

Robert DeMars, Democrat; Mrs. Alma Frazier, Democrat; Milton Kolarov, Republican; and Myron Wahls, Republican.

Kolarov was formerly treasurer of the Wayne County Republican Committee. Newly-appointed Board member Kolarov, active in civic affairs, is presently serving on the City of Wayne's Economical Development Committee. He has also been Commander of Wayne's American Legion.

Encyclopedia Entries Roll In

Who will be the 27 readers of the nine Associated Newspaper Inc. publications in Western Wayne County who will win complete sets of the Encyclopedia Britannica?

A contest -- to conclude with a free drawing May 18 which will see one set of the 24-volume Britannica and two sets of the Britannica Junior awarded to readers of each individual newspaper -- is being conducted by Associated Newspapers, Inc., a division of Panax Corporation, as the encyclopedia winds up a three-year observance of its first edition published in 1768.

The participating newspapers are the Wayne Eagle, Canton Eagle, Westland Eagle, Garden City Guardian-Review, Inkster Ledger-Star, Belleville Enterprise, Romulus Roman, Plymouth Eagle and Livonia Eagle.

As of yesterday morning 151 persons had submitted entries. The deadline is noon Monday, May 18. Entries must be in the central office of Associated Newspapers, Inc., 35540 Michigan Ave., West, Wayne, Mich., 48184 by that time.

Enter as often as you want, but only one set of encyclopedias can be awarded to anyone family. An entry blank is available in a contest advertisement on Page 18-B of today's newspaper.

HCMA Boat Ramps Open For Season

Boat launching facilities of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority parks are now open at Metropolitan Beach near Mt. Clemens, Stony Creek Metropolitan Park near Utica and Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford.

Metropolitan Beach near Mt. Clemens has launching ramps that usually accommodate up to eight boats, however, docking at the ramps will be limited because improvements are being made and are expected to be completed by Memorial Day. The ramps are located along the Black Creek, which provides access to Lake St. Clair. The ramps are open daily until dusk. Adequate parking is provided at the ramp site or in the large 6,000 car parking lot for boat trailers and cars.

There is no charge for boat launching in the spring and fall. However, there is a 50-cent launching fee plus the usual 50 cent parking charge from May 29 through Labor Day.

Detroit Area residents may take the Edsel Ford (I-94) Freeway to Metropolitan Beach Parkway, which leads to the park entrance at Jefferson Avenue. For additional information, phone HO 3-4581 (Mt. Clemens) or WO 3-3022 (Detroit line.)

Six boats may be launched at one time from the East Launching Site, where there is space for 60 cars and trailers and additional parking for cars only. The West Launching Site has space for 125 cars and trailers with 6 to 8 launchings available at one time at the 120-foot ramp.

There is no charge for launching, however, launching permits are required and are available at the park office. The permits are good for the 1970 season.

There is a 10 mile per hour speed limit on Kent Lake and no water skiing is permitted. Trailers, cars and boats are not permitted to remain overnight in Kensington Metropolitan Park, except for boats in slip rental spaces.

PCHA OK's Expansion Of Annuity Program

A tax-sheltered annuity program now available only to executive personnel of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority will be extended to all salaried people in the four hospitals operated by PCHA.

Approval of this extension was made by the Authority's

Board of Directors at its monthly meeting last week at Annapolis Hospital. Roger J. Remer, PCHA treasurer, explained that with this extension nearly 1,000 salaried employees will now be eligible to take advantage of the annuity program.

The Board also approved salary increases for three hospital administrators and three members of its Central office administrative staff. Receiving salary boosts were Walter S. Wheeler, new administrator of Annapolis Hospital in Wayne; Alan R. Case, administrator of Beyer Memorial in Ypsilanti, and Joseph Melling, administrator of Seaway in Trenton. Also receiving salary increments were E.J. Mathia, PCHA controller; J.E. Lester, Purchasing Director, and Fred J. Barten, assistant to Dr. Karl S. Klicka, Executive Director of PCHA.

In other actions the Board approved:

1) Payment of current bills as of April 15, 1970 in the amount of $71,082.71.

2) Dis-continuance of the Central Office Collections Department effective Dec. 1, 1970. Remer stated that his action was being taken because recent studies have shown these collections can now best be handled by collection departments in the individual PCHA hospitals.

3) Contract with Dr. Martin M. Katz for Emergency Room service at Annapolis Hospital.

4) Two amendments to the Medical Staff By-Laws, as recommended by the Medical Advisory Committee.

Petitpren Prepares Hearing On Tax Bill

State Representative Vincent J. Petitpren (D-Westland) today invited all concerned citizens to an official public hearing on a bill he introduced to exempt senior citizens from property taxes for school operations.

The hearing, sponsored by the House Committee on Taxation of which Petitpren is vice-chairman, will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 16, at the U.A.W. Region 1-E Hall, 9650 Telegraph Road in Taylor.

"Far too many of our senior citizens are losing their homes as a result of the twin effects of the inflationary spiral that has gripped our economy and rising taxation for expanded public services," Petitpren said. "These most valued citizens, who have already contributed more than their fair share to finance the development of our schools in their productive years, must be guaranteed the dignity of economic security, including adequate shelter, in their old age. House Bill 4020 provides the kind of tax relief that is absolutely necessary to keep that guarantee."

Petitpren's proposal would exempt persons 65 years of age or older from 50% of the property taxes on their homes. They will be presented to Representative George Montgomery (D-Detroit), Chairman of the Committee on Taxation at the hearing.

"I believe that this hearing will not only offer all concerned citizens an opportunity to express their views on this issue, it will also be a most significant educational experience for legislators and citizens alike," Petitpren said. "Hopefully, it will lead both to passage of the bill and a growth in public sensitivity to the unique and very pressing needs of our senior citizens." age and older who have been residents of the state and owned a home for at least 10 years from payment of property taxes used to finance school operations. Any revenue lost by local school districts as a result of the exemptions would be reimbursed by the state.

"Unfortunately, the general public is for the most part unaware of the truly desperate situation faced by many of our older citizens. Most of them live on fixed incomes and are unable to keep up with the rising cost of living. Many face the dead-end alternatives of going on relief or selling their homes to meet the expenses of mere subsistence," Petitpren said.

Representatives of all senior citizens groups and labor leaders from both AFL-CIO and UAW locals in the area will be among the 200 persons expected to attend.

U-D To Offer Summer Dramatics

The University of Detroit's Performing Arts Department will institute a large summer program which will include a drama and dance workshop and two plays.

The program entitled "Summer '70" will feature several outstanding instructors in the performing arts. Bess Saylor, principal dancer and choreographer for the Dayton Ballet Company will be the guest artist in residence for the summer session.

Negotiations are being completed with Barbara

Fallis, the ballet mistress of the American Ballet Company; John Sowinski and Christine Sarry of the Eliot Field Ballet Company; Louis Falco, noted choreographer and modern dancer, and Tony Montanaro, prominent mime artist.

For further information regarding the Summer workshops and theatre productions phone 342-1000 extension 339 or write the Performing Arts Department, The University of Detroit, 4001 W. McNichols Rd. Detroit Michigan 48221.

Senators Plan To Honor Faust

Eight state Senators have indicated that they will attend the testimonial dinner honoring Senator William Faust on May 16 at the Garrison House in Garden City.

The eight Senators planning to attend are: Sen. N. Lorraine Beebe (R) Dearborn, Sen. Jerome Hart (D) Saginaw, Sen. Alvin Degrow (R) Pigeon, Sen. James Gray (D) Warren, Sen. John Bowman (D) Roseville, Sen. John McCauley (R) Grosse Ile, Sen. Anthony Stamm, Republican chairman of the Education Committee and the Democratic Senate Minority Leader, George Fitzgerald.

Bill Borrusch, co-chairman of the event said, "the purpose of the testimonial was merely to say thanks to Bill Faust for a job well done. Since this brings to light the number of senators who will be present, apparently others feel the same way. Their appearance alone is testimony to Senator Faust's service."

Tickets to the dinner are available now and may be purchased from "Friends of Faust Committee" members or by calling GA 5-2597, PA 2-6292 or 697-1851.

Make Romulus A City., Vote 'Yes' On Charter

A time and day for a historic decision has arrived for residents of Romulus Township.

The township's electorate will decide tomorrow whether Romulus moves forward or remains status quo.

After more than 16 months of meetings and conferences with neighboring city communities, a nine-member Romulus Charter Commission has prepared and is presenting for the approval of the township's voters a 17-section proposed charter for city rule.

Township residents are experiencing a considerable amount of pro and con discussion on the proposed charter and more so since publication of the proposed home rule document two weeks ago in the Romulus Roman.

A brief inspection of the charter will disclose that its provisions embrace the best ideas of charters that rule the legislative and administrative branches of government in surrounding cities.

Legal advisors and experts in Charter Law have confirmed this observation.

In November, 1968, voters of the township approved a proposition calling for city incorporation and the election of a Charter Commission.

Tomorrow's special election presents an opportunity to put the final touches to the charter, which voters have requested, by casting favorable ballots and electing a mayor, clerk, treasurer and a seven man council to administer the affairs and government of "their city."

For Romulus Township, cityhood makes sense.

Home rule government is better government. It is self governing-by the people, for the people and by the people. Townships political seers will tell you are in great measure controlled by the state.

Between the two types of government rule, cityhood has many benefits that do not now exist in Romulus Township.

A long list of endorsements have been given the proposed charter. These endorsements are from leading government officials, prominent businesses and manufacturers, social, civic and service organizations even partisan groups.

The desire to serve Romulus under city rule has prompted 43 individuals to seek non-partisan elective positions called for under the city charter. The number of candidates is the largest seeking office in the township's history.

Voting approval of cityhood for Romulus is a forward step in the right direction in this space age.

It not only means protecting the boundaries of the township for residents, but to realize Romulus' great potential and its subsequent benefits to all residents.

Romulus—with its ever increasing industrial, commercial and residential areas deserves the best. In our opinion, cityhood is best.

We go along with the majority and urge approval of the proposed City Charter.

We Applaud The Choice

We applaud the selection of Mrs. Connie Hierta of Westland to fill a vacancy on the Livonia School District Board of Education.

Mrs. Hierta would have been an excellent choice no matter what her residence, but the fact that she lives in the Westland portion of the Livonia School District is good news for Westland.

Divided between many school districts, Westland has always been relegated to a second seat in the governing of the schools which serve it.

The Livonia board's decision is an indication that Westland citizens living in the Livonia School District do have a voice in the district. We welcome, and applaud, the selection.

Milliken's Sure To Run

By DON HOENSHELL
Associated Lansing Writer

LANSING — Gov. Milliken is off and running for election or the sun will rise gloriously in the west tomorrow.

There are Michigan for Milliken bumper stickers and a well-heeled citizens committee.

S. John Byington, a Detroit communications executive and former brain-truster for both Govs. Romney and Milliken, led capitol newsmen through the traditional charade.

"Our first duty will be to convince the governor that he should run," he said.

He had given Milliken an advance copy of the prospectus for Michigan For Milliken, the citizens group, and Byington reported there was no shock or dismay expressed.

"He (Milliken) was very pleased that a group of citizens of this caliber had agreed to sign on the dotted line to work for him," Byington said.

The group will open offices in Lansing and Detroit and will have as executive secretary Mrs. Betty Finnigan, of Birmingham, presently holding the same job for Michigan's Partners for the Alliance.

Byington's list of citizens reads like a who's who of Michigan Political Life, including Detroit Financier Max Fisher, Edward W. Cushman, former Romney aide at American Motors Corp. and now a vice president at Wayne State University.

It also carries the names of Joseph L. Hudson, Daniel Gerber, Creighton Holden, L. William Seidman, Win Schuler, Alfred R. Glancy, Jr.

Byington said the list contains persons from all geographical locations, every strata of the economy, the clergy — and also a number of defecting Democrats.

William Hettiger, deputy secretary of state to James M. Hare, and once mentioned as a candidate to be his boss' successor, showed up on the list.

The Rev. Louis Cappel, pastor of St. Ann's church in Escanaba, is the only Upper Peninsula resident on the list.

Byington said the first chore for the group will be to circulate petitions, then to distribute bumper stickers and publish a campaign brochure.

He said that Milliken has made Michigan a national leader in all areas, including workmen's compensation, environmental preservation, housing, crime control, education and urban affairs.

"Subsequently we will serve as a rallying point for anyone willing to work for the nomination and election of Bill Milliken," Byington said.

Milliken two weeks ago designated U.S. District Attorney James M. Brickley as his running mate for lieutenant governor without confirming that he, himself, would be a candidate.

It is traditional for a governor to wait until the last possible moment to announce, since as a candidate for office his words undergo a weight reduction and his forums shrink.

Governors have almost unlimited access to news columns and television and radio time, for example. Candidates must fend with the equal-time laws and newspaper critics rise to a new heights of cynicism.

Thus explains the charade.

Back in the capitol, State Representative George F. Montgomery (D-Detroit), also a candidate for governor on the Democratic side, also sees stirrings in the Milliken camp.

"It's happened four times now," he said. "Everytime we schedule a press conference, the governor's office also schedules one for the same time."

In a refinement of the technique, Montgomery said, Milliken's office occasional by cancels a news conference at the same time — thus leaving everybody with ballpoint pens poised and nothing to write.

Veteran politician-watchers here grope for words to describe the strangest election-year spring since the swallows arrived off-schedule at Capistrano.

Milliken names his lieutenant governor before he, himself announces. Brickley said he can't be a candidate until the party calls him because he holds a Federal job.

A Truth Exposed

By Dick McKnight

The Wayne Community School District Board of Education got a well-deserved tongue-lashing from trustee Ronald Scott last week.

The issue was the board's stand against development of the Hickory Hollow Apartments on Van Born Rd. between Merriman and Venoy Rds. The Hickory Hollow development is to be a "low-cost" project.

By a 4-2 vote, the board decided that "low-cost" just wasn't good enough for the city of Wayne and the Wayne Community School District.

Board member Scott summed it up when he said, "There was an indication that the resulting number of children might make it difficult for the operations of our school system, destroying my notion that as a public school system we have the responsibility to accept all who would seek an education."

Scott decried the board's stand, and with uncanny sting said, "It is easier now for the Wayne Planning Commission to reject the proposed facility in view of the Board of Education's recommendation. This is how an 'establishment' works."

As Scott witnessed by his remarks, it hurts to see a public body make decisions that reflect a social bias against another group of human beings. It hurts because it is a popular belief against another group of human beings. It hurts because it is a popular belief that public bodies represent all of the people, and some of us choose to believe that.

The whole idea that a board of education could justifiably choose to represent one group of people, and discard the interests of another strikes a blow at the heart of the democratic system, the system we profess to honor.

The message was clear: the board of education does not think people who live in "low-cost" housing to be desirable residents of their school district. After all, they might demand educational facilities financially burdensome, they might need extra help because of disadvantaged backgrounds (too costly) and the Hickory Hollow development might be less pleasing to the eye than a row of suburban homes (a matter of debate).

To be absolutely fair, one has to admit that those board members who voted against the Hickory Hollow development thought themselves to be performing a public service. But the question is, who is the public they served? It was the establishment, and not the future of Wayne that was served.

Apartment development in Westland has raised hot tempers to blazing, sometimes because of this exact problem—an unwillingness as Scott said, to accept "those somehow different from ourselves."

Sometimes by our actions we expose ourselves to the critical light of truth. Somewhere in the Hickory Hollow matter there is a lot of truth to be found.

A Word Fitly Spoken

New Blood For Wayne

By Jim Bradley

There's still room at the top!

This was graphically proven by the election of Ken McKee to the Wayne City Council. The 30-year-old political babe, whose naivete is possibly his greatest character trait, has found his place in the sun.

Cautiously snubbed by city officials during the primary campaign, McKee was considered by many to be an "outsider." He was one of the "new breed" which would upset the "balance" so carefully nurtured for decades in Wayne.

When he announced his candidacy in early January, the name Kenneth McKee, close to McKay, recalled some of the "similar name" difficulties suffered not too long ago in Detroit. People smiled patronizingly upon him, but considered him as much of a threat as a flea on an elephant's back.

This new candidate, who had never held political office and had seldom voted for one (although there is an interesting story there) just couldn't "start at the top!"

But the ambitious McKee fooled everybody, including possibly even himself.

He had no friends on the council. He was given an image he did not deserve—that of being deliberately connected with certain elements around town. Financial support was missing. He had no organizations behind him and his campaign staff was shaky at best.

All these obstacles seemed to sound the death knell for McKee. The straw that would break the political "camel's back" was his lack of campaign savvy—he just didn't know the ropes!

Through the desert of isolated backing in the early going, he and his wife Connie, and parents began the long, oft-times lonely journey. But long hours of work paid off when the people voted him fifth in the primary election out of 16 candidates.

Since nothing succeeds like success, McKee began to get a trickle of support from interested persons. But still the road was long—and all uphill!

Four candidates of prestige stood between him and the place he aspired to be. Four barriers that seemed insurmountable to many of his best friends. And he faced the snide remarks that he had ridden in on his similarity to Mayor Ken McKay's name.

Deliberately challenging that assumption—because he wanted to totally disprove it—McKee launched probably the most innovative campaign ever seen in Wayne.

He spent long hours in planning his strategy—his brochures, campaign letters, and finally, coming up with the symbol of a key. He wanted to stand or fall on his own name.

The rest is history. In the final two weeks of the campaign—when the result was definitely still in doubt—people began to respond to his side with encouragement, help and physical participation.

McKee rode the tide of this surging enthusiasm to a second-place finish and wasn't very, very far from first place. He has proven once again to all would-be aspirants to political positions that there is still room at the top!

If he keeps his polite gentility and firmness of purpose, he should remain there a long time.

Lift Up Your Head

Beauty Roots Go Deep

By Rosemary Wolock

That grass roots support avidly sought by committee chairmen, political candidates and public officials hardly ever materializes. But one thing in Inkster that definitely has grass roots support is beautifying the city.

Citizens from every part of the community have been getting involved in cleanup efforts recently. To mention a few, there are the Robichaud teens, Cub Scouts at Avondale School, second-graders at Daly and the Inkster Jaycees who recently embarked on an extensive cleanup campaign.

Coming up this weekend is a cleanup by Girl Scouts at Harrison School and the following weekend, the cleanup of several sites planned by Citizens for a Cleaner Inkster.

I'm sure there are others, too—some I haven't heard about and others I have inadvertently forgotten.

It always struck me as a shame that communities most active in beautification are those that least need it, like Dearborn and Southfield. But in Inkster, where beautification could give the whole city a psychological boost, no such group exists.

At this point, it cannot be for lack of interest. It is obvious that people all over Inkster are becoming increasingly concerned about cleaning and beautifying the city.

I don't think a City Beautiful commission would have to go begging for members, as some of the other commissions unfortunately do. The leaders for such a commission can already be found—among the Citizens for a Cleaner Inkster, the Jaycees, and city teachers.

Obviously some groundwork needs to be done. An Inkster group would certainly benefit by knowing how other City Beautiful commissions are organized, how they function and what some of their projects are.

This is not a great stumbling block however. What is needed is the desire on the part of the city fathers to see such a group formed. What is also needed are pledges from Inkster citizens who would be willing to work in such a group.

Beautification is slow, back-breaking work. Not only is it necessary to change the physical landscape, but also people's attitudes toward their city.

But a new city council will be elected shortly. In the four years they serve on the council, a noticeable change could be wrought on Inkster's landscape. Or nothing may happen. It's up to them.

Commissioner May Get Nod To Clean Up Rouge

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners is expected to designate the County Drain Commissioner as the agency to spearhead efforts to clean up the polluted Rouge River.

After evaluating possible alternatives, a committee of the Board of Commissioners has recommended that the task be assigned to the Drain Commissioner.

gives drain boards the authority to finance and build drainage and sewage treatment facilities across municipal boundaries and even across county lines," explained County

Commissioner James DeSana, of Wyandotte, D-District 23. "This is important because the Rouge River originates in Oakland County."

Board's special committee on county reorganization which made its recommendation after meeting with representatives of several agencies.

drainage construction bonds to finance the construction. Local governments within the project are assessed the cost in proportion to the extent they benefit from the improvements.

117 square miles. A dozen cities and townships in western Wayne and Oakland counties lie wholly or partly within the area drained by the 31-mile-long middle Rouge River. Some 200,000 persons live within the basin.

only agency with the legal powers to do the job," DeSana said.

Other members of the Special Committee are:

Joseph Cardinal, Dearborn, D-Dist. 21, vice chairman, Harvey J. Beadle, Redford, D-Dist. 19; Freddie G. Burton, Detroit, D-Dist. 5; Rudy Hickey, Ecorse, D-Dist. 18; Eugene A. Sikora, Detroit, D-Dist. 7; Philip A. Tannian, Detroit, D-Dist. 15; and Frederick Yates, Detroit, D-Dist. 9.

Young Trouble Shooters Meet At Wonderland

The 1970 Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest, in which auto mechanic students of the Detroit area will match their skills for school honors and scholarships, will be held at Wonderland Center, Plymouth at Middlebelt, on May 15.

There will be two students on a team. And, when the judges say "Go!" each team will take a written exam and will then be given a car to put in running condition.

These are new cars, supplied by area Plymouth dealers. But, each car will have been deliberately tampered with. Somewhere under the hood will be several good reasons why the car won't start or run properly once started. Teams will race the clock and each other to restore their cars to normal running order.

"The contest has a twin purpose," said Wally Mahar, Regional Service Manager, for the Chrysler-Plymouth Division.

"First, we want to encourage these young men to complete their education," he said. "We do this by providing an activity in which they can earn recognition for their skills.

"Second, we are trying to alleviate this country's shortage of well-trained auto mechanics. Car population is growing far faster than auto mechanics are being trained, and U.S. Department of Labor figures indicate that the mechanic shortage will increase even more if current trends continue."

Assisting Mahar in setting up the local contest is Harvey Blayn, Promotion Director of Wonderland Center.

The winning team and their teacher will represent the Detroit area at the National Trouble Shooting Finals in Indianapolis in June at the famed "500" Speedway.

They'll compete with teams from about 100 other local contests across the country for more than $125,000 worth of scholarships and awards.

Competition is in two classifications -- high school and post-high school.

Scholarships go to the winning teams in each division; each of those teams will also earn a trophy for its school and a new Plymouth engine -- complete with transmission and accessories -- for use in the school's auto shop. In addition, every team competing in the National Finals receives a set of mechanic's tools for its school.

Proper Preliminary Work Needed To Install Ceiling

Your new ceiling can be installed by stapling to furring strips or by cement application.

Furring-1 x 3-inch wood strips-can be nailed through plaster or directly to wood joists to provide a solid base for stapling the tiles. It is recommended that you use furring strips if the existing ceiling:

1. Is gypsum wallboard which is nailed to joists which are spaced more than 16 inches on center;
2. Has an overlay of old paper or paint which has chipped and peeled;
3. Is composed of plaster which has cracked or has an uneven surface, or which is so weak that it will give under pressure.

If none of the above apply and the existing ceiling is in sound condition, you can install your ceiling with cement only.

The first step is to determine the room layout for using-for example-a 12x12-inch tile. A ceiling has a better appearance if border tiles-those adjacent to the walls-are the same width on opposite sides of the room.

To find the border tile width for the long wall of your room, follow these steps:

1. Measure one of the short walls in the room;
2. If the measurement is not an exact number of feet, add 12 inches to the inches left over and divide the total number of inches by 2 to give you the width of the border tile for the long wall.

Follow the same procedure in measuring for border tiles along the short walls:

1. Measure one of the long walls in the room.
2. If the measurement is not an exact number of feet, add 12 inches to the inches left over and divide the total number of inches by 2.

(NOTE: When using 16 x 16-inch tile, convert the room measurement into inches and divide the measurement by 16. Treat the extra inches the same way as with the 12-inch tiles in the previous example. In the second steps, add 16 instead of 12 before dividing by 2.)

In installing furring, it is important that the first two strips be carefully placed so the border tiles are properly aligned.

Place the first furring strip flush against the wall at right angles to the ceiling joists, and nail the strip into place with two 8-penny nails at each joist position. If the joists are concealed by an existing ceiling, locate and mark the position of each joist before nailing the furring strips in place.

Joists generally are spaced 16 inches on center and are perpendicular to the long wall. If you are unable to determine the direction of the joist by tapping on the existing ceiling, check the floor above the joists. If the finished floor is wood, it will be nailed across the joists.

The second furring strips should be placed parallel to the first at the border width distance from the wall. In the example, the border width measurement was 10 inches.

Add a half-inch for the stapling flanged. Thus, the second strip would be placed so that the center is 10½ inches from the wall.

After installing the second strip, work across the ceiling, nailing the rest of the furring strips in place 12 inches on center from each other.

(NOTE: The spacing would be 16 inches on center for 16-inch tiles on center from each other.)

As the result of having already predetermined border tile size, the next to last strip will be positioned automatically-in this example-10½ inches from the wall.

The last strip should be nailed flush against the wall in the same manner as the first strip. (See illustration 1.)

Make certain that the furring strips are level by checking them with a straightedge. Correct unevenness by driving thin wood shims between the strips and the joists.

If pipes or wire cables are located below ceiling joists or project less than 1½ inches below the existing ceiling structure, install double furring strips over the entire ceiling to avoid the projections.

The first course should be spaced 16 inches on center and installed directly to the joists. The second course is then applied perpendicular to the first, appropriately spaced to receive the ceiling tile. (See illustration 2.)

Pipes or ducts that project below the ceiling joists should be boxed in with furring strips before the ceiling is installed.

After the ceiling has been installed, wood molding can be used to provide a finish detail for inside and outside edges. (See illustration 3.)

EDITOR'S NOTE-Techniques for ceiling layout, cutting tile and installation will be published next week. This week's information was provided by Hillard & Reiser Lumber Corp., 34131 Michigan Ave. Wayne.

Area Students Win Science Fair Honors

The 13th annual Metropolitan Detroit Science Fair sponsored by the Engineering Society of Detroit and a daily newspaper announced winners of its three suburban fairs. The suburban fairs were held at The University of Michigan, Macomb Community College and Cranbrook Institute. The area winners included: Daniel Schmieder of Wayne St. Mary, second place physics and engineering division. Barbara Eyerman, Westland of Ladywood High School, second place chemistry division. Susan Archambault and Ann Wisner of Ladywood High School were awarded special awards in the medicine and health division.

In the biochemistry division Debbie Passkiewicz, Susan Stedman and Laura Meyers all of Livonia and Ladywood High School placed first, second and third respectively.

In the botany division a special award was given to Nanette Benoit of Ladywood

High School. Bonnee Harris placed first and Mary Elliot placed second in the ninth grade experiment division. Both students attend Ladywood High School.

Mark Tochman of Whitman Junior High School placed second in the graphic arts category while Kathleen Murray of Ladywood High School and Heather Phillips of Whittier Junior High School received special awards in the same division.

In the eighth grade graphic arts division Judith Farrell of Livonia St. Michaels placed first. Julie Luttermoser of Plymouth Our Lady of Good Counsel and Mary McGraw both received special awards in the graphic arts division.

Commissioners Plan To Spearhead Efforts

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners is expected to designate the County Drain Commissioner as the agency to spearhead efforts to clean up the polluted Rouge River.

After evaluating possible alternatives, a committee of the Board of Commissioners has recommended that the task be assigned to the Drain Commissioner.

"The State drain code gives drain boards the authority to finance and build drainage and sewage treatment facilities across boundaries and even across county lines," explained County Commissioner James DeSana, of Wyandotte,

D-District 23. "This is important because the Rouge River originates in Oakland County."

DeSana is chairman of the Board's Special Committee on County Reorganization which made its recommendation after meeting with representatives of several agencies.

Under the drain code, watershed projects extending over more than one county can be petitioned for, financed and built, Drain Commissioner Henry V. Herrick told the committee.

The drain board established for such a project has the power to issue drainage construction bonds to finance the construction. Local governments within the project are assessed the cost in proportion to the extent they benefit from the improvements.

"We have directed the Drain Commissioner to submit plans for the clean-up program to the Public Works Committee of the Board of Commissioners within 90 days," DeSana reported.

The Middle Rouge drainage basin encompasses 117 square miles. A dozen cities and townships in western Wayne and Oakland counties lie wholly or partly within the area drained by the 31-mile-long Middle Rouge River. Some 200,000 persons live within the basin.

Communities within the drainage basin include Walled Lake, Novi, Northville city and township, Plymouth city and township, Livonia, Westland, Garden City and Dearborn Heights.

DeSana's committee met with representatives of the County Road Commission, the County Board of Public Works, the Michigan Water Resources Commission and the Huron River Watershed Council.

"We concluded that the Drain Commissioner is the only agency with the legal powers to do the job," DeSana said.

'Hadrian VII' Is A Meaty Evening of High Drama

By HOWARD ALLEN
Panax Amusement Critic

There are parts which are considered actor-proof, so meaty that it is hard to wreck them. The role of Frederick William Rolfe in "Hadrian VII," now at the Fisher, is not one of them.

Rolfe is a complex, unlovely individual, verging on paranoia, spurned by the Catholic Church which deems him unfit for the priesthood he seeks, leaving him a lonely, embittered man, despising mankind. We meet him at a minor crisis of degradation, his furnishings are about to be sold for unpaid debts and his landlady is about to evict him.

At this bitter moment, reading about the death of a pope, he starts a novel about his own election as pope and then fantasizes the entire story, of how the archbishop apologizes for misjudging him in the past, offers him the priesthood and asks him to accompany him to the consistory for the election of a new pope.

The College of Cardinals is snarled in politics and through an improbable bit of politicking against the front-running Cardinal Ragna, 2/3rds of the cardinals present decide to throw away their votes on the most unlikely candidate there — Rolfe.

The ironies of the new pope run far deeper than his comic appearance — garbed in white, smoking the cigarette he can't give up — he proposed a total revolution of the church he loves yet despises, including the stripping of all church wealth to give to the poor.

He even finds time to feel the stirrings of humanity, as in a touching scene with a young misfit seminarian who might have been Rolfe 20 years ago. But in the end paranoia winds out with the triumph of a despised Catholic-hating Ulsterman from the past.

This is an extremely difficult part. Alec McGowan's performance on Broadway was a masterpiece meticulously conceived to highlight the thousand facets of an impossible personality. Hume Cronyn's is more than adequate, if not dazzling; he seems to lack a certain subtlety and there are dimensions of Rolfe's character which aren't fully realized.

For example, when Rolfe suffers a seizure in the midst of defending himself to his cardinals, Cronyn practically mouth.

This is not the Broadway production; it was restaged for the Stratford Shakespeare Festival last summer by Jean Gascon and the Stratford National Company of Canada cast is seen here, uniformly excellent. All in all, "Hadrian VII" is a memorable night.

The Wayne State University Bonstelle Theatre production of "Death of a Salesman" was certainly one of their better efforts of the year. Sooner or later practically everyone tackles Arthur Miller's masterpiece, not always with success, for the tortured Willy Loman — his life full of false values concerning success and popularity — requires great strength to bring off.

The Bonstelle cast was far more even than some of their casts. J. Daniel Logan was impressive as the ruined traveling man while Helen Scarlett added stature as his wife. Nor were there many miscues by Donald W. Dailey and Jeffrey F. Woodward

Well shut mah mouth, the 'south is sordid' season is upon us again, this time at the Camelot with "The Liberation of L.B. Jones," in which a conniving Negro funeral director, not above selling his own kind more expensive funerals than they can afford, seeks a divorce from his wife who's been playing around with a vicious white cop in a small southern town.

Present American Dame

Wayne Civic Players will present "The American Dame," by Phillip C. Lewis, May 22, 23, & 24. A two-act comedy, "American Dame" follows the course of women's rights from Adam & Eve to present day.

A few of the cast of many, are Dave Eastman, Karen Anderson, Lauretta Wagner, Bob Wagner, Ginnie Tadlock, Frank Iadonisi, Millie Roy, Carl Schuman, Ruth Habson and Ann Sidman. Co-directors are Jackique Guernsey and Rob Roy.

Marine Cpl. Calvin L. Teague, son of Mrs. Nila M. Teague, 28856 Block, Garden City, is serving with the First Battalion, Eighth Marine Regiment with the U.S. Sixth Fleet amphibious forces in the Mediterranean.

He will participate in amphibious exercises with United States and NATO units.

Sgt. Frank H. Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Payne, 32920 Barton, Garden City, has received the Army Commendation Medal.

He earned the award for meritorious service as a mechanic while serving with the 268th Aviation Battalion in Vietnam.

The play will be presented, at John Glenn High School, Friday & Saturday, May 22 and 23 at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, May 24, at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are 1.00 for students and 2.00 for adults. Tickets may be purchased at the door or by calling Ann Button, 261-3183.

Divorce Reform Group Sets Dearborn Meeting

DEARBORN — The newly-formed Marriage and Divorce Law Reform League will meet at 8 p.m., Thursday, May 14, at the Dearborn Youth Center, Michigan Ave. near Greenfield.

The purpose of the new non-profit organization is to eliminate inequities in the present divorce laws and their enforcement. "It is our firm belief that too many men and women are being denied their rights in the divorce courts," said Norman A. McKinney, of Detroit, president of the group.

"All too often, one partner is granted unwarranted, excess rights and privileges following and during divorce actions; one partner is made to suffer great loss, both personal and financial without just cause and with little or no judicial consideration," McKinney said.

In particular, the League is concerned with men who are denied the right to their children and made to pay support far in excess of their financial abilities, causing their "second families" to suffer great deprivation.

On the other hand, the League is also concerned with women who must bear the total burden of support for their children because they are unable to collect support.

McKinney said the group is endeavoring to change the laws and their enforcement "so that both partners receive equal consideration under the law, so that neither partner be required to bear the full burden of responsibility for the divorce and for the actions resulting from that divorce."

He added, "While our primary goal is one of seeking equal justice for both partners in a divorce, we further feel that many divorces could be prevented if competent counseling were required before the granting of a divorce, and that many unfortunate marriages could be prevented if competent counseling were required prior to the granting of a marriage license."

Hart Classic Closes Bonstelle

"You Can't Take It With You," Kaufman and Hart's 1936-37 Pulitzer Prize comedy, winds up the Bonstelle Theatre's current subscription series beginning Friday night at 8:30. It

Inkster Reader Urges Vote For Newcomers

TO THE EDITOR:

Every reader of this letter, every Inksterite, should be -- and probably is -- concerned about the future of Inkster. And it is appropriate that we be concerned. Because our current government is at an all time low of its own creation.

Calls For End Of Issue

TO THE EDITOR:

It's a shame when you live in a biracial community, when election time comes around and candidates have to make race an issue as part of their political campaign.

There is no doubt there is tension pertaining to race. But it is by no means in extreme as the news media is having us to believe.

I have always respected journalism as a means of printing the facts, rather than issues. To extort the truth, to create fantasy for enthusiasm, then this world is sick.

We should not and cannot judge people by race or color, but what they have to offer humanity. Our community has shown we can work and live together for a better tomorrow.

WILLIAM F. SCHUH JR.
Candidate for Council

That the conditions in Inkster are declining cannot be denied. A citizen arriving in Inkster today to visit or to make it his home finds it hard to believe that our community was once described, by the Detroit Free Press in 1963, as a "city ahead of the nation."

Inkster's present tax rate for city operation is $20 per $1000 assessed valuation, which is the limit without referendum. However, this year the assessed valuation on property will be raised thereby boosting taxes. Yet the "city ahead of the nation" is tremendously lagging. Who is responsible?

Now is the time for Inkster to make headway and progress by simply avoiding past mistakes. But in order to do this, Inkster needs the new ideals, the new surges of energy and talent that can be accomplished only by a new governing body.

If you sympathize with our city's plight, as I do, then you too will cast your vote on May 18 for Dan Williams and the other new comers, who are willing to give Inkster their time, talent and energy for a lot less fame or fortune than probably you or I would.

JOY

"There is a distinct Joy in owning a piece of land unlike that which you have in money, in houses, in books, in pictures, or anything else men have devised. Owning such personal property brings you into society with men. But land is a part of God's estate in the globe; and when a parcel of ground with a house on it is needed to you, and you walk over it, and call it your own, it seems as if you had come into partnership with the original proprietor of earth."

No man should be without the joy described above. It is the reward of all man's labor the world over.

PCHA Position Outlined During Special Observance

The four PCHA hospitals will join with over 7,000 hospitals throughout the country in observing National Hospital Week, May 10 to 16.

The theme for the observance, "Your Hospital Cares," emphasizes the efforts PCHA hospitals are making to meet the increasing urgency of health care needs in an era of spiraling costs.

"Today every hospital is confronted with greater demands for high quality medical care, for more people, than ever before in this nation's history," said Donald J. Pizzimenti, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Peoples Community Hospital Authority. "PCHA hospitals are meeting this challenge in the 23 communities they serve and, through long-range planning, are gearing up to meet the project requirements of tomorrow."

"National Hospital Week is an appropriate time to focus attention on the job PCHA hospitals are accomplishing in providing optimum health care facilities at rates far lower in most instances than any similar agency in the Detroit metropolitan area," emphasized Pizzimenti.

"Like our fire and police departments, too many of us are prone to take our local hospital for granted," he said. "It is a familiar building, one which many of us pass every day. It's reassuring to know it is there, if and when we need it."

"But let's pause for a moment and consider what it takes for that hospital to be there... ready to care for you when you need it," Pizzimenti urged. "Consider what is required in terms of manpower, materials and money."

hospitals now employ more than 2,400 persons, in over 200 job classifications. Many of these are highly skilled technicians and technologists. In addition, PCHA conducts extensive in-service training programs aimed at keeping its personnel fully informed of the most advanced techniques in health care services.

2) The annual payroll for the four hospitals totals approximately $16 million. The authority's operating budget for the coming year is more than $27 million.

3) It requires more than 10,000 items to fully equip a modern hospital, many of them highly complicated and expensive.

4) Most important in any evaluation of a hospital's service to a community is the fact that during the coming year the four PCHA units will provide more than 305,000 patient days of care.

5) PCHA hospitals now have over 1,000 beds and this will be increased by 225 with the construction of the proposed authority hospital in the city of Taylor.

Pizzimenti emphasized in a recent appearance before the Westland City Council, "minimization of the total 'community cost' for quality hospital care has been the objective of the PCHA since its inception. That this objective has been accomplished can be readily seen when one compares the cost per patient day in PCHA hospitals with other hospitals in the area.

"While progressing toward this goal the authority -- with the new hospital in Taylor -- will provide a hospital within five miles of 95 percent of the residents of PCHA member communities.

"It is well to remember as we enter this observance of Hospital Week that the hospitals of today face many new and complex problems," said Pizzimenti. "PCHA hospitals are dedicated to meeting this challenge and determined to maintain the highest standards of health care services. We solicit the continued support and understanding of the people we serve in helping us achieve our goal."

In a concluding thought Pizzimenti emphasized again that PCHA hospitals are truly 'community hospitals' in the strictest sense of that designation in that they are operated for and by the communities they serve.

Andrew and Elaine Komorny of Westland are the proud owners and breeders of Doberman Pinschers Andelane's Diplomatic Despot and Andelane's Diadem, litter brothers who recently completed the final legs for their Companion Dog (C.D.) degrees with scores of 194½ and 191½ respectively at the recent Toledo Kennel Club show. Both dogs finished their C.D. requirements in three straight shows.

Ri-Jan's Bali of Pamelot, a Miniature Pinscher owned by Pam DeHetre of Livonia, went Best of Breed from the open class, owner-handled, at the recent Central Ohio Kennel Club show in Columbus.

Pamelot's Black Knight, a Doberman Pinscher co-owned and bred by Pam DeHetre of Livonia, was Reserve Winners Dog at the Lima Kennel Club show on Saturday, May 2.

Professional handler Bill Haines judges confirmation and Bill Wells judges obedience at the Doberman Pinscher Club of Michigan's fun match to be held Sunday, May 10, at the Odd Fellow Hall, 21500 John R. Hazel Park. Obedience will be conducted in the morning, with entries taken at 9:30 A.M. Confirmation entries will be taken at 1:30 P.M.
